Translation of the Arabic note.

From the beginning of this section and to this point is not found in the Coptic; though it is found in most of the Arabic copies: yet even in some of these it is written in lines which differ from the lines of the original, and it is remarked against it, that it is not in the Coptic.

I found it in one Coptic copy which says that it was translated from the Arabic copies into the Coptic language.

The Greek copy which I possess, and which is written in two columns, one Greek and the other Arabic, does not contain it either; the Arabic being a translation by Ibn Thāwfil (Theophilus). And the original of the other Arabic copy, also a translation by the aforesaid, only contains it on a small leaf attached, and the writer remarks as follows:

‘And this section was wanting in the copy which I transcribed, a correct (and) ancient copy; so I transferred it from another copy.’

I found a note in the Syriac translation, as follows: ‘This section is not in the Syriac, nor in the Greek, and is only found in the Coptic translation.’ Therefore I was unwilling that the copy should be without it.

It is written in the margin in Syriac in some of the Syriac Gospels, but not in others. I found it also in a Gospel in the Syriac writing by Abba Yūnas, archbishop of Damascus, in very small writing with a different pen from the original; and he has remarked as follows: ‘This section is not in the Syriac, but Baulā (Paul) translated it from the copies of the Alexandrians.’

We mentioned this section to the priest, Abu 'l Faḍl, the Melkite in Cairo, being of those who are acquainted with the Greek language; so

¹² Again Jesus spake to them, saying: 'I am (the) light of the world, he who will walk after me, shall not walk in the darkness, but shall receive (the) light of (the) life.' ¹³ The Pharisees then said to him: 'Thou thyself bearest witness about thyself; thy witness is not true.' ¹⁴ Jesus answered and said to them: 'Even if I should bear witness about myself, true is my witness, because I know whence I came, and whither I am to go. But ye know not whence I came, or whither I am to go. ¹⁵ Ye judged according to flesh; and I judge he wrote it on paper in Greek, and gave it us, and said: 'I have transcribed it from a copy which I had from Constantinople.'—The end of the note.

The Bodleian text of this note is rather the fuller of the two, but the Brit. Mus. text makes several places clear where the meaning of the author Ibn al 'Assāl would have been otherwise obscure.

The Vienna MS. of like character, edited by Lagarde, has هذا الفصل ليس في القبطي ولا في نسخ الرومي كلها ولا كل السرياني 'this section is not in the Coptic, nor in all the Greek copies, nor all the Syriac.'

the sepulchre. Now it was a cave, and there was a great stone put (lit. given) against it. ³⁹ Jesus said to them: 'Take (away) this stone [there]:' Martha, (the) sister of him who died, said to him: 'Lord, he stinketh (&ϭ), for (it is) his four(th day) to-day.' ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her: 'Said I not to thee, that if thou shouldest believe, thou wilt see (the) glory of God?' ⁴¹ They then took away the stone from the mouth of the sepulchre. And Jesus lifted his eyes up, and said: 'My Father, I give thanks to thee, because thou heardest me. ⁴² And I was knowing that thou hearest me always; but because of this multitude which surrounds me I said (it), that they may believe, that thou sentest me.' ⁴³ And having said these (things), he cried out with a great voice: 'Lazarus, come forth.' ⁴⁴ And he who died came forth, being bound as to his feet and his hands with grave-clothes, and his face bound with a napkin. Jesus said to them: 'Unloose him, send him away, let him go.'

⁴⁵ Many then of the Jews who came to Mary, having seen the things which he did, believed him.

⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees, they told to them that which Jesus did. ⁴⁷ The chief priests then and the Pharisees assembled an assembly, and they were saying: 'What shall (lit. will) we do? many are the signs which this man doeth. ⁴⁸ If we should permit him thus, all will believe him, and the Romans will come, they will take away our place and our nation.' ⁴⁹ But one of them answered, his name being Kaiapha, being chief priest for that year. He said to them: 'Ye know not anything; ⁵⁰ nor reason ye to yourselves, that it is profitable for you, that (one) man alone should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' ⁵¹ Now he said not this from himself; but because he was (imperf.) chief priest as it is written: '15 Fear not, Daughter of Sion; behold, thy King cometh mounted on a colt (the) foal (lit. son) of an ass.' 16 And these (things) his disciples knew not at first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that they did these (things) to him. 17 The multitude then, which was (imperf.) with him, was bearing witness, that he called Lazarus from the sepulchre, and raised him from the dead. 18 Therefore the multitudes were coming forth to him, because they heard that he did this sign. 19 The Pharisees then said to one another: 'We see that we shall (lit. will) not gain anything; lo, the whole world went after (lit. behind) him.'

20 Now there were Greeks of them who came up to (the) feast that they might worship. 21 These then were coming to Philip the man of Bethsaida of Galilee, and they were beseeching him, saying: 'Our Lord, we wish to see Jesus.'

went. ³⁶ While ye have the light, walk in the light, that ye may become sons of the light.'

Jesus having said these (things) went, he hid himself from them. ³⁷ But having done so many (lit. these multitudes of) signs before them, they believed him not. ³⁸ That (the) word of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said: 'Lord, who believed our voice? and to whom was revealed (the) arm of the Lord?' ³⁹ Therefore it was not possible for them to believe, and Esaias said again: '⁴⁰ He hardened their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they might not see with their eyes, and understand in their heart, and might return to me, that I might cure them.' ⁴¹ These (things) said Esaias, because he saw (the) glory of God, and spake concerning him. ⁴² Nevertheless many of the rulers also believed him: but they were not confessing him because of the Pharisees, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: ⁴³ for they loved (the) glory of [the] men rather than (the) glory of God. ⁴⁴ And Jesus cried out and said: 'He who believeth me, believeth (ΔϚ) ye also ought to wash the (lit. their) feet of one another.

 15 For I gave (lit. did) to you a pattern, that according as I did to you, ye also might do to one another. 16 Verily, verily, I say to you, that there is not a servant [being] greater than his Lord, nor an apostle [being] greater than he who sent him. 17 If ye know these (things), blessed are ye if ye should do them. 18 I was not saying (it) concerning you all: for I know them whom I chose, but that the scripture may be fulfilled: "He who eateth my bread with me raised his heel upon me." 19 [From] now I say to you before it happen, that if it should happen, ye may which thou gavest to me are from thee. ⁸ Because the words which thou gavest to me, I gave to them; and they also received them, and they knew truly that I came from thee, and they believed that thou sentest me. ⁹ I pray for them: I was not praying concerning the world, but concerning them whom thou gavest to me, because they are thine. ¹⁰ And they who are mine are thine; and I was glorified in them. ¹¹ And I am no longer in the world; but these, they are in the world, and I come to thee. My Father, the holy (one), keep them in thy name which thou gavest to me, that they may be one as we are. ¹² When I was (lit. being) with them I was keeping them in thy name which thou gavest me. I kept them, and not any of them perished except (the) son of (the) perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³ But now I am coming to thee, and these (things) I speak in the world, that my joy may be complete in them.

my servants (lit. officers) would have fought (lit. given) for me, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now my kingdom is not of (ἐκ) the world.' ³⁷ Pilate then said: '(Art) thou a king then?' Jesus answered: 'Thou sayest that I (am) a king. For I was born for this work, and therefore I came into the world for my bearing witness to the truth; all who are of the truth hear my voice.' ³⁸ Pilate said to him: 'What is the truth?' and having said this, again he came forth to the Jews, he said to them: 'I find not any guilt in this man. ³⁹ But your custom is that I should release one to you in the passover, wish ye then that I should release to you (the) king of the Jews?' ⁴⁰ And they all cried out, saying: 'Release not this (man); but release Barabbas.' Now this Barabbas was a robber.

XIX. Then Pilate took Jesus, he scourged him. ² And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, they put (lit. gave)

'I am (the) king of the Jews.'" ²² Pilate answered: 'That which I wrote I wrote.' ²³ The soldiers then having crucified Jesus, took his garments, they made four portions, and the coat also: now the coat was seamless, woven from above all of it. ²⁴ They said then to one another: 'Let us not rend it, but let us cast lot for it, to which of us it is to belong.' That the scripture might be fulfilled, saying: 'They divided my garments among them, and they cast lot for my raiment.' These (things) then the soldiers did. ²⁵ But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and (the) sister of his mother, Mary of (lit. that of) Kleopa, and Mary the Magdalene. ²⁶ And Jesus having seen his mother, and the disciple whom he was loving, standing (by), said to his mother: 'Lo, thy son!' ²⁷ Then he said to the disciple: 'Behold, thy mother!' And from that hour the disciple took her away to his house.

wrapped (up), laid apart alone. ⁸ Then came in also the other disciple who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, he believed. ⁹ For they had not yet known the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ The disciples went again to their place. ¹¹ But Mary was standing outside by the sepulchre weeping: and as she (was) weeping, she looked into the sepulchre: ¹² she saw two angels sitting in white vesture, one at the head, and one at the foot, in the place in which the body of Jesus was lying. ¹³ And those (angels) said to her: 'Woman, why weepest thou?' She said to them: 'They took away my Lord, and I know not where they laid him.' ¹⁴ Having said these (things), she turned herself back, she saw Jesus standing, and she was not knowing that it is Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus said to her: 'Woman, wherefore weepest thou? for whom sought thou?' And she, thinking that it is the gardener, said to him: 'My Lord, if thou carriedst him (away), shew to me where

And there was (imperf.) not any of his disciples (who) dare ask him: 'Who (art) thou?' knowing that it is the Lord. ¹³ Jesus then came, he took the bread and gave to them, and the fish thus. ¹⁴ And this is (the) third time that Jesus manifested himself to his disciples, having risen from the dead.

¹⁵ When then they (had) eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me (more) than these?' He said to him: 'Yea, my Lord, thou knowest that I love thee.' He said to him: 'Feed my lambs.' ¹⁶ Again he said to him (the) second time: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me?' He said to him: 'Yea, my Lord, thou knowest that I love thee.' He said to him: 'Feed my sheep.' ¹⁷ He said to him again (the) third time: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me?' Peter was grieved because he said to him (the) third time: 'Lovest thou me.' And he

Jesus said not to him, that he will not die; but if I should wish to leave him until I come, what is it to thee? ²⁴This is the disciple who bare witness of these (things); and he wrote them; and we know that his witness is true. ²⁵And there are many other things again which Jesus did; these, if they had been written one by one, I know that the world would not be able to contain the books which would have been (lit. will be) written.

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

PAUL DE LAGARDE under his former name of Boetticher, in 1852, edited the Acts of the Apostles from four MSS., of which Curzon 124 (called by him Curetoniani) and Tattam's (now Oriental 424) had been collated by Schwartz: the other two in the Paris Library (now 65 and 66) were collated by himself. In the same year he published the Catholic and Pauline Epistles, using the two Paris MSS. of the Acts, which also contained the Catholic Epistles, and another Paris MS. containing those of S. Paul. Besides these he had the collations of the Curzon and Tattam MSS., and further a MS. divided into two volumes of the Berlin Library for the Epistles of S. Paul. These two volumes, however, did not contain the Epistles to the Galatians, Ephesians, and Philippians, but he was able to use a copy of the Ephesians and Philippians which had been made by Theodore Petraeus, of Leyden, from a MS. now at Copenhagen. This has been found to contain the Epistle to the Galatians, not copied by Petraeus (1660), and with the other two volumes formed originally one codex. Thus Lagarde worked from four MSS. for the Acts, four for the Catholic, and four for the Epistles of S. Paul. To his critical text he gave very few variants, on the average not more than a single line of apparatus.

Wilkins, who had already published the whole New Testament in 1716, constructed his text from the three Bodleian MSS., two in Paris, and two in the Vatican. None of those in Paris or Rome can be identified with certainty. The Acts and all the Epistles were contained by one in Paris and two in Rome, and one of these last was dated A.M. 1220 (1504). This may have been Vatican 15, though Wilkins styles it N^o. 5. To one of the Paris MSS. he ascribes the number 331, saying that it contained the Epistles of S. Paul, but the

MS. in which that number is now seen has the Acts and Catholic Epistles also. As for the Apocalypse he mentions one MS. at the Vatican bearing the early date A.M. 896 (1180). Neither of the Apocalypse MSS. at the Vatican are dated, and both appear to be of the fourteenth rather than the twelfth century, to which may belong the Petersburg codex. Wilkins only gave a few variants in his introduction.

Tattam edited the whole New Testament for the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, but the MSS. which he used were not described, and he gave no variant readings or notes of any kind.

The present edition depends upon thirty-four MSS., including in this number three lectionaries already used in the Gospels, and counting a few fragments in the British Museum as one MS. Of this number nineteen contain the Pauline Epistles, thirteen the Catholic Epistles, thirteen the Acts, and eleven the Apocalypse. All have been carefully collated by the editor except one, of which only the Epistles to the Romans and 1 Corinthians were collated. In this somewhat arduous work he was much helped and encouraged by the kindness received from librarians: and to the names already mentioned in the Preface to vol. i, he wishes gratefully to add those of Dr. Ehrle, of the Vatican, and Kūmmus (Hēgoumenos) Ṣalib of Dayr al Muḥarraḳ, who kindly entertained him at his monastery for thirteen days. Several more MSS. of recent date have been seen in Egypt, but in Rome or Petersburg there seem to be no others.

Though Lagarde worked with scanty material, and expressed to the editor at Göttingen his regret that he had not examined all the MSS. of S. Paul in Paris, yet Tischendorf was able to obtain from his scholarly edition a sufficiently correct estimate of the Bohairic (cop) readings; and while a more thorough investigation has revealed an interesting variety among the MSS., and thrown some light on the history of the Version, it will not seriously affect the evidence which the Version affords for criticism of the Greek text.

In the Acts of the Apostles, where such evidence is more particularly desired, the Bohairic MSS. are nearly always unanimous in support of the text of Westcott and Hort, as already set forth in Dr. Sanday's Appendix to the Greek Testament. *MSS. Γ and O occasionally exhibit Saidic influence, which is not surprising, since Γ was collated in the Said itself, near Assiout, and O has a colophon referring to an exemplar in that province. F is perhaps more strongly coloured by the dialect of Upper Egypt, though it has no documentary connection with the Said.

TEXT.

The text of British Museum Oriental 424, formerly in the possession of Tattam, has been given without alteration as far as possible for the Epistles and Acts; being almost the earliest dated MS., and containing a colophon which declares that it was copied from a very accurate exemplar of the preceding century, probably the continuation of the Gospels MS. H₁. According to the rule of the Coptic Church, which reads the Apostle, i.e. S. Paul, the Catholic, i.e. the Catholic Epistles, and the Acts in this order, the MSS. always begin with the Epistles of S. Paul, upon which the Catholic Epistles and Acts follow in regular succession, and this order has been kept in the text. The Apocalypse is edited from the interesting Curzon MS., the earliest dated of that book.

TRANSLATION.

In the translation only one important change has been made. Contrary to the method employed in the Gospels, all words in italics represent Greek words used in the Coptic. The word is usually, but not quite always, the same Greek word in some known text. A few common conjunctions are not in italics, and further the italics must not be regarded as necessarily implying that the whole of the word is Greek, but only the Greek part of a word which may have Coptic formatives. Regardless of style the conjunction ⲁϵ is always translated 'but,' and when ⲁⲗⲗⲁ is used an ⲁ follows 'but' in brackets. The word 'Greek' itself when translating ⲟⲩⲉⲛⲓⲛ should have been printed in italics, though its Saidic form figures in Professor Steindorff's glossary among Coptic words and is rendered 'Ionier.'

The same arrangement has been used corresponding strictly to the verse divisions of the MS., occasionally interfering with the sense. Sometimes a rather false appearance of paragraphs has been given when only a verse-beginning occurs. All proper names in the Acts are transliterated.

CRITICAL APPARATUS.

One slight alteration will be found in the apparatus where a sign of interrogation has been often placed when comparison with the Greek order of words is indicated, such comparison being nearly always very precarious.

Though the Apocalypse is found in two MSS. with other books, it usually forms a book by itself, and the MSS. of it have been classified separately. The texts of Lagarde and Tattam are marked by L^s and T^t.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MANUSCRIPTS.

All the following MSS., except C, were collated throughout by the editor in 1898-1900.

- A₁ 1. A₁ (Lagarde t) Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., London Brit. Mus. Oriental 424 (Greg. 4), imperfect (the volume is bound in two parts, 1° [Rom.-Col.] of which the latter half is injured and patched, much of the text being lost; 2° 1 Thess. to end, in nearly perfect condition of text, less cut than 1°), A. D. 1307, A. Mart. 26 Babah 1024, paper, foll. 217 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 33, 1° 25.1 × 17.8 cm., text 21 × 14.3 cm., 2° 26 × 19 cm., text 21 × 14 cm.; writing by the same hand as H₂^{evv}; punctuation, rough red > ÷; l. c. three lines of text or more, yellow, red, and white, the letter † very much prolonged; s. c. red for ch. small, and black reddened; ch. great marked by two red lines of text and small black uncials, ch. small by larger red uncials; foliated on verso with uncials, signed with Ar. name of ep. &c.; quire ending &c. IϞ XϞ(XH) KE OEC (ϞC EC) with usual ornament; orn. scarcely any except yellow spaces and headpieces, which probably represent the gold ground of painting in Gabriel's MS. the exemplar.

Text practically the same as A₂, usually agreeing also with E₁, has a few glosses, contemporary corrector marks with red circles letters to be omitted; marginal references to quotations in red Arabic, quotations pointed in the Acts.

Bound in recent purple morocco, the cover has inside 'OR. 12. Ab.,' A₁ the first (recent) page OR. 424 "B^t at Dean Tattam's sale 16 June, 1868.' fol. 1 (restored) watermark P P 'Rev H Tattam D D,' fol. 2 (rest.) w.m. three crescents and λ , list of epp. of 1°.

p. 3^a ep. Rom. begins with yellow hp. enclosing label with red Arabic 'The epistles of Būlus the apostle'; below is CϣϨ ΘϬΩ red Coptic inscr. with Ar. 'The first epistle to the people of Rome'; one line of large red ornamented letters, one line of black between two lines of red archaic letters. p. 26^a subscr. in red letters, narrow yellow hp., C. inscr. and Ar. 'The first ep. of Corinth and it is the second,' one line of tall red and two of ordinary red letters; thus also for 2 Cor. p. 49^b, Gal. p. 64^b, Eph. p. 72^a; p. 80^a ep. Philip. three lines of ordinary red letters. fol. 91 (rest.) w.m. three crescents, list of epp. of 2° pp. 92^a, 97^a, 99^b, 117^a, 123^a, 127^a, 1 and 2 Thess., Heb., 1 and 2 Tim., Titus, Philem. begin as ep. Col. p. 129^b ep. Philem. ends with blk. subscr. lengthwise in margin, and original collation note for Coptic and Arabic. p. 130^b epp. Paul end with general subscription in tall black archaic letters.

Then follows black Arabic statement: كتب هذه الرسائل المقدسة من نسخة ذكر فيها انها نسخة محررة نقلت من نسخة بخط الاب الفاضل انبا يوحنا اسقف سنود المعروف بالسمنودي وهذه النسخة المنقول منها بخط البطريرك انبا غبريال وكان يومئذ حين كتابتها تميم وقال انه اجتهد في تحريرها وتصحيحها قبطياً وعربياً حسب ما تصل اليه الطائفة البشرية وكان اهتم بها الارخن المسحي النشو ابو شاكر بن السني الراهب ابن المهذب وهو ابن الريشة و ذكر ان كمالها كان في العاشر من كيهك سنة ستة و ستون وتسع مائة للشهدا الموافق لمستهل رمضان سنة سبع واربعون و ستمائة للهجرة ونقل ذلك لنفسه بخط يده العهد الدليل الخاطي يونس المسحي ابو سعيد بن سيد الدار ابن ابو الفضل المسيحي وكان كماله في يوم السبت تاسع بايه سنة الف و اربعة و عشرين للشهدا موافق لسابع ربيع الاخرة سنة سبع و سبع مائة للهجرة الخفية

'These holy Epistles were written from a copy in which it was recorded that it was a careful copy copied from another, in the handwriting of the eminent father Anba Yuḥannā bishop of Samanūd, called El Samanūdy; and the copy from which the former was made was in the writing of Patriarch Anba Gabryāl (III, 1268-1271), and at the time of the writing of it he was a priest, and he said that he (G.) exerted himself in writing and correcting it in Coptic and Arabic according to what human skill attained. And he who provided for the work was the Christian Archon al Nashū Abu Shākir ben al Sany the monk, ben al Muhaddhib, and he was the son of Al Rishah; and he recorded that the completion of it was on the tenth of Kihak in the year 966 of the

A₁ Martyrs, corresponding to the beginning of the month Ramaḍān of the year 649 of the Hijrah. And the humble servant and sinner Yūnas, who is named Abu Sa'īd ben Sa'īd al Dār, ibn Abu al Faḍl the Christian, copied this (copy) for himself with writing of his hand, and it was finished on the day of the sabbath the 9th of Bābah in the year 1024, corresponding to the seventh of the second Rabī'a of the year 707 of the Ḥanafiyan Hijrah.'

p. 131^a (restored) 'Written in the 8th cent^r of the Ooptic Church.'

p. 131^b list of Cath. epp. and Acts.

p. 132^a vacant except quire beginning, ^b vacant but painted yellow with black-lined border, probably representing a picture in the exemplar, cf. H₂^{evv}.

Ep. James begins as ep. Rom. with headpiece and red Arabic 'The Kātālikūn,' one large ornamented and two lines of ordinary red letters. Subscr. as before red. Thus also for ep. 1 Peter p. 139^a, ep. 2 Peter p. 145^b, ep. 1 John p. 149^b, ep. 2 John p. 155^b, ep. 3 John p. 156^b, ep. Jude p. 157^a. Thus also the rest, with three lines of ordinary red letters. After subscription of Jude ΚΑΘΟΛΙΚΗ ΕΠΙΣΤΟΛΗ ΤΩ ΕΠΙΡΗΜΗ ΤΩ ΚΩ ΣΤΙΧ Δ, Ε ΚΕ ΑΓ in large black archaic without translation.

After fol. 158 is an unnumbered fol. restored with w.m. P P. Then p. 159^a Acts begins as epp. Rom. and James with الأبركسس 'The Praxis' on label of yellow headpiece, one line of large ornamented red and three of ordinary red letters.

p. 217^b after tall black archaic letters of subscr. is black Arabic statement:

'Was completed the book of the Catholic epistles and the Acts; and A_1 it is recorded in the copied copy, that (the said) copy was copied from a correct copy in the handwriting of Jūrjah ben Saksīk the celebrated copyist, and that the writer of his copy was the miserable among the monks Gabryāl; and he said that he (G.) exerted himself in correcting it in Arabic and Coptic with a very thorough revision; and he recorded that the provider for the work was the Shaykh al Nashū the before-mentioned; and the end of the work was on the tenth of Kīhak in the year 966 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. And the end of copying this copy was on the blessed fifth day, twenty-eighth of Bābah in the year 1024 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the twenty-sixth of Rabī'a II of the year 707 of the Ḥanaḥīyan Hijrah. It belongs to what he copied for himself with writing of his hand, the humble servant and sinner Abu Sā'id ben Saïd al Dār ben Abu al Faql the Christian; and he prays and makes many prostrations at the feet of him who reads in it, that he would correct its defect and think of him for mercy and pardon before the Lord at his coming to judge the world; and adoration and glory be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

It was collated in Arabic and Coptic.'

A₂ Christ and S. Mary, the Conversion of Saul and S. Paul? writing, suggestive of pictures in Gabriel's copy and leaving cruciform space. Fol. 164 has drawing of four figures of the writers of the Catholic epistles beneath an arch from which hang seven lamps; a smaller side arch has another lamp with one more above it. Rough arabesque ornament also occurs with grotesque figures of dragons, birds, and other animals. Epp. Paul, Cath., and Acts have elaborate first pages of coarse colour; the usual headpiece is a narrow band of interlacing work. Ep. Heb. has three arches. In the three-arched headpiece at beginning of ep. Rom. is a yellow Arabic inscription on white label, 'The book of the epistles of the words (من قول) of our master (معلمنا) Būlus.' Under the arches is the inscription ΠΡΟΣ ΡΩΜΑΙΩΣ Δ, to which are added the words which appear in other MSS. as subscription, though without notice of the stichoi and chapters which will be found at the beginning of the other epistles in A₂.

Bound in native red leather the cover inside has R. Ourson Parham; on the first original fol. is written, 'The Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles in Coptic and Arabic.' On the fourth is the cross &c., which forms frontispiece to ep. Rom.

p. 4^a ep. Rom. begins with one large ornamented line of blue letters reddened, one tall line of red, one tall yellow, one tall black reddened, and one line of red ordinary letters. For the rest of Paul, Peter, John, and Jude one large blue line and two or three ordinary lines of red letters mark the beginning of the epistles. Ep. James being the first Catholic ep. begins with one very large yellow line, one large blue reddened, one large yellow, one large red blackened, and one ordinary line of red letters.

pp. 39^b, 40^a have red and blue lines enclosing the columns (Rom. xvi. 7-21).

p. 40^b ep. Rom. ends ΠΡΟΣ ΡΩΜΑΙΩΣ, and Arabic 'Finished is (the) epistle of Rome in peace, and follows it (يتلو) the first epistle of Corinth.'

p. 67^b ep. I Cor. ends with Arabic 'Completed is the first epistle of Corinth in peace of the Lord. Amen.' Then in rhyming verse:

يا قاري هذا الخط لم تعاشر احدا قط.
درت البلاد وعاشرت اهلها لم وجدت في الناس خيرا قط

'O reader of this line, do not associate with anyone at all. I went about the country, and I associated with the people of it: and I found among men not any good at all.'

p. 140^a ep. Titus ends 'Completed is the epistle of $\text{Ṭiṭ}\tilde{\text{ū}}\tilde{\text{s}}$, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of $\text{Filim}\tilde{\text{ū}}\tilde{\text{n}}$.'

A₂ . p. 142^b ep. Philem. ends 'Finished and completed is the epistle of Filimūn, being the thirteenth, in peace &c. The epistle of the 'Abrāyīn 14.'

Ep. Hebrews has triple round-arched headpiece with $\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{N}\Theta$ and $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{P}$ and the usual form of inscription &c. ; p. 163^a ends with same general subscription as A₁ except that CTIXOC is written in full, also the following: تم وكلمت رسايل بولس الرسول المنتخب وهي اربعة عشر رسال وارباعها خمس الالف وخمسمائة خمس وسبعين وفصولها مائة وستة وذلك في غاية شهر امشير سنة ١٢٠٨ الف ومايتين وثمانية عربية لهجرة وذلك من نقلة بخط القس غبريال الراهب صحرة في سنة 465 تسعمائة ستة وستين للشهدا الموافق لمستهل رمضان سنة ١٣٧ للهجرة بسلام من الرب امين Finished and completed were the epistles of Būlus the elect apostle, being fourteen epistles (sing.), having five thousand five hundred and seventy-five stichoi and one hundred and six chapters ; and it was in the end of the month Amshīr of the year one thousand five hundred and ten of the Martyrs ; and it was the beginning of the third month Sha'abān of the year one thousand two hundred and eight of the Arabic reckoning by the Hijrah. And it was from a copy in the writing of the presbyter Gabryāl the monk, written out in the year nine hundred and sixty-six of the Martyrs, which corresponds to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. In peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 172^b ep. James ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ya'kūb, the first of the Catholic epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the first epistle of Buṭrus, the second of the Catholic.'

p. 173^a ep. 1 Peter has black $\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{P}\text{OC}$ ΔVTIC beside the inscriptions.

p. 180^a ep. 1 Peter ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Buṭrus.'

p. 186^a ep. 2 Peter ends 'Completed is the second epistle of Buṭrus, being the third of the Catholic, in peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 193^b ep. 1 John ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Yūhannā, the fourth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

Ep. 2 John has later black $\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{P}\text{OC}$, and ends without subscription.

p. 195^a ep. 3 John has black $\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{P}\text{OC}$ $\text{O}\Delta\text{VTIC}$ with inscription in usual form, and ends 'Completed is the third epistle of Yūhannā, being the sixth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

p. 198^a ep. Jude ends 'Completed was the epistle of Yahūdā, the Δ₂ brother of the Lord, it is the seventh, in peace &c.'

Epp. Cath. end with the same general subscription in tall blue reddened letters as Δ₁ except CΤΙΧOC and ΚΑΦΔΛΕΟΝ written in full and ΔΥ by error for λΥ.

p. 199^a Acts begins with elaborate first page containing large trefoliolate round-arched headpiece with border carried down for Arabic column, beyond which are a dragon and birds, one line of very large ornamented, one of large blue reddened, one of yellow, one of large red, and one of small red letters, Arabic also coloured; the second and third great chapters have lines of large blue and large yellow letters respectively, the thirteenth and thirtieth have a line of large yellow, the forty-seventh has one line of large blue reddened and the usual one of red letters, the forty-eighth a line of large yellow besides the red.

p. 270^a subscription in large yellow letters, below black Arabic as usual: كمل كتاب الثلاث رسايل مما نقل من نسخة صحيحة بخط القس غبريال الراهب وذلك في اول يوم في شهر برمودة سنة ١٢٠٨ الموافق لذلك لمستهل شهر رمضان 'Was completed the book of the three epistles, of what was transcribed from the correct copy in the handwriting of the presbyter Gabryāl the monk: and that was in the first day in the month Barmudah, year of the Martyrs 1510 (1794), corresponding to the beginning of the month Ramaḍān, year 1208 (1794) of the Hijrah, in peace &c.'

p. 271^a has broad border round vacant space, three more original foll. and one recent end the volume.

3. B two volumes, I Paul (Heb., Tim.), II Cath., Acts; Polyglot, Milan B Bibl. Ambrosiana, imperfect, XII–XIV centuries, paper, foll. 275 (I), 186 (II), coll. 5, Ethiopic, Syriac, Coptic, Arabic, Armenian (defective), ll. 31–44, 29.5 × 6 cm. Copt. col. The Coptic writing is of two hands, I of earlier, XII cent. form (B), ends in middle of 2 Cor. iv. 2, and begins again in middle of 2 Cor. ix. 7 and ends in middle of Gal. iii. 1; II of later, XIV cent. appearance (B^a), resembling H and agreeing also in text with H. B^a has points of brighter colour, Φ, Ϟ, ϙ reddened and quire endings &c. IϞ XϞ; punctuation, red ϙ and more often ϙ, ϙ ~ occurs, and also black colon which replaces the red point in some pages; l. c. marginal as usual; s. c. not marginal because of want of space; ch. great marked by large capital and red lines of varying number and arrangement, but not numbered till ΙΔ. of 1 Cor. in B; B^a marks ch. great with two red lines, and numbers also the small; foliated on recto with uncials;

B the quinions are marked in Arabic and numbered: thus p. 9^b الكراس الثاني 9^b 'the second quire.' The text is peculiar, though B^a usually agreeing with D. Epp. 1 and 2 Cor. have rectangular headpiece of early form with the ordinary interlacing lines of red, black, and white. Ep. Gal. has no headpiece. The text begins at Rom. i. 20, on p. 20^a (orig. fol. E), and continues to iii. 29, which verse is now on the first page of volume I (fol. 1K). p. 46^b the inscription of 1 Cor. begins above, and is continued down within the first large capital Π. p. 68^b an ornament of early form below the Syriac column. p. 69^b Arabic reference to feast of S. Antonius. p. 71^b 12 the number of chapter written twice within capital Η. Reference in Arabic to the water, of plunging, i. e. the Epiphany. p. 94^a capital A formed by black bird. p. 99^b ep. 2 Cor. headpiece (see above). p. 126^b the former writing begins again, rather larger with no red points, only occasional black colon and no signature for quire beginning. p. 142^a ep. Gal. begins with one large and one smaller line of archaic letters; verso has Arabic signature of name of epistle. p. 143^b v. 11 Ar. reference to the feast of Stephen. p. 149^a v. 16 Ar. reference to adoration of the Cross. p. 150^a the later hand begins without red colour, which is resumed on 150^b with signature Γ&λ&τ; and the references to O. T. are written in red uncial and black Arabic. At the foot of Syriac column: الله يرحم لمن قرا في هذه النسخة المباركة ويدعى للمتهم وللناسخ للضعيف يوحنا السرياني من God shall have mercy on him who reads in this blessed copy: and he shall call (upon God) for him who provided (for the work) and for the copyist the feeble Yūhannā the Syrian from the city Amida the protected, and may he strengthen him for ever. Amen.' p. 151^b v. 15 Ar. reference to the feast of the Nativity. p. 160^a after the subscription is Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of the great doctor Paul the apostle to the people of Galatia, being the fourth in number, and being the first to them (وهي الاولى لهم): and it was written from Rome, and sent with Titus his disciple. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the souls (نفوس) of thy servants the transcriber (ناقل) and his brother Ḥadid, through the prayers of those who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and on us mercy. Amen.' Then below a red line of division, 'And the number of its great chapters six, and small thirty-one': اهتم بها القس صليب المهتم بدير السريان المعروف بستنا السيدة: 'Provided for it the presbyter Ṣalib the provider at Dayr al Siryūn, known as our Lady the Virgin. May the Lord reward him with her intercessions. Amen.' Below the Syriac column is a better written Arabic subscr. stating the end of the epistle by help of God.

p. 160^b ep. Eph. begins with $\overset{\ominus}{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ before the inscription, one large B and one smaller line of archaic and two of red ordinary letters. p. 176^a the Coptic subscription is written in a thinner hand below the Coptic and Arabic columns, then in Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of Paul the apostle to the people of Ephesus. It was written from Rome, and sent with the brother Tishkūs. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the soul of thy little servant the transcriber of these letters and his brother Ḥadid through the intercessions of them who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and upon us mercy. Amen.' Then in red, 'And the number of its great chapters seven, and small thirty.' Then the same statement about the provider the honoured presbyter Ṣalīb. The Virgin is called 'Mother of God,' and 'in his kingdom' is added to 'intercessions.' p. 176^b ep. Philip. begins with $\overset{\ominus}{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ before the Coptic inscription and the same kind of arrangement of lines. The Armenian column disappears. p. 184^b has quire heading $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{T}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}}\overline{\text{H}}$ (sic) $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\Theta}$. p. 188^a after $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{F}}\overline{\Delta}\overline{\text{L}}$ $\overline{\text{E}}$ the subscr. continues $\overline{\text{N}}\overline{\text{O}}\overline{\text{C}}$ $\overline{\text{N}}\overline{\Delta}\overline{\text{I}}$ $\overline{\text{N}}\overline{\text{H}}\overline{\text{I}}$ $\overline{\text{N}}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{K}}$ $\overline{\text{B}}\overline{\text{W}}\overline{\text{K}}$ $\overline{\Delta}\overline{\text{B}}\overline{\text{P}}\overline{\Delta}\overline{\Delta}\overline{\text{E}}$ $\overline{\Delta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{H}}\overline{\text{N}}$ 'Lord, pity me, thy servant Abraam. Amēn.' p. 188^b ep. Col. begins with $\overset{\ominus}{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$, two lines of black archaic and four of red ordinary lines. p. 194^b has quire ending $\overline{\text{P}}\overline{\text{R}}\overline{\text{O}}$ $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\text{O}}\overline{\Delta}$ $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{O}}\overline{\text{C}}$ $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{C}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{C}}$ $\overline{\text{K}}$. p. 195^a has quire beginning $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\Delta}$ $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{C}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}}\overline{\text{T}}$. p. 199^a the Ar. subscr. omits mention of no. of stichoi and chapters. p. 199^b ep. 1 Thess. begins with small headpiece under which is $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{W}}$. The text has one black line of large letters. p. 208^a the Ar. subscr. omits mention of no. of stichoi and chapters. p. 208^b ep. 2 Thess. begins with broader headpiece and $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{W}}$. p. 214^a ep. Heb. begins with smaller headpiece. The inscription is not given in Arabic. The text has one line of large black reddened lines. p. 214^b $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{T}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}}\overline{\text{T}}$ $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\text{E}}$. p. 215^a $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\text{T}}$ $\overline{\text{I}}\overline{\text{T}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}}\overline{\text{T}}$. pp. 224^b, 225^a quire headings as above, and thus afterwards. p. 246^b Ar. subscription omitted. p. 247^a ep. 1 Tim. begins with small headpiece over inscription, one line of large black letters. p. 259^a ep. 2 Tim. begins with small headpiece over $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{W}}$, one line of large and one smaller line of black letters. pp. 268^a, 273^b epp. Titus and Philem. begin as 2 Tim. and one line of large black letters. Ar. subscr. omitted.

In volume II the four languages continue and the Coptic of the later hand. p. 1^a ep. James begins with headpiece and $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{W}}$, one line of large black reddened letters. pp. 9^b, 10^a quire ending and beginning as before, continuing the numbers $\overline{\text{K}}\overline{\Theta}$ &c. p. 13^b ep. 1 Peter begins with smaller headpiece and $\overline{\text{C}}\overline{\text{T}}\overline{\text{N}}$ $\overline{\Theta}\overline{\text{E}}\overline{\text{W}}$ &c. p. 27^a ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except two large lines. p. 35^b ep. 1 John begins as ep. 1 Peter.

- B p. 48^a ends with red Ar. subscr., 'Finished was the first epistle of John.' p. 48^b ep. 2 John larger headpiece ϸϩⲛⲉⲩⲱ &c. p. 50^a red Ar. subscr. as above, below Coptic. p. 50^b ep. 3 John the same with smaller headpiece. p. 51^b subscr. as for 2. Ep. Jude begins as 3 John except no peculiar lines of letters. p. 55^a in red Arabic below Coptic, 'Finished was the epistle of Jude in peace of the Lord, and with its completion also the seven Catholic epistles in peace of the Lord. Amen. And following are the narrations (قصص) of our fathers the apostles.' p. 55^b the Acts begins with large square headpiece containing a label with ϸϩⲛⲉⲩⲱ, two lines of large black letters. Neither Coptic, Arabic, nor Syriac have any subscription. The Ethiopic only ተፈጸመ፡ በዘኛ፡ ሐዋርያ፡ ወገብሮሙ 'Was finished here the apostle and their acts.'
- C 4. C Paul (Philem., Heb.), Cath., Acts; Copt., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḳ, perfect, XIV century, paper, col. 1, ll. 25, 36.8 × 27 cm., text 26 × 18.5 cm., writing resembles Δ₂^{evv}, but the arabesque ornament at some of the headings and chapters is rather coarse; l. c. variously coloured and also red only; s. c. red; ch. great marked by two red lines and red uncials; ch. small with black uncials; quire endings &c. ⲓⲧ ϫⲧ, ⲧϸ ⲉϸ, or ⲕⲉ Ⲑⲉϸ; quotations pointed. The first page of ep. Rom. has an oblong headpiece with circular forms on gold ground and a label with inscription; the text having one line of tall yellow letters, four of thick black archaic, three red, three black, and two red of similar archaic letters with gold floret for points. This MS. was collated only for Romans and 1 Corinthians to supply the missing portion of Γ. The text agrees closely with HJ.
- Γ 5. Γ Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḳ (Greg. 26), imperfect, XII century, paper, foll. 417 (+ 15), coll. 2, ll. 24, 35.7 × 26.3 cm., text 25.6 × 18.2 cm.; punctuation, red ⋈ ⋈ —, rare colon and black hyphen; quotations pointed; foliated on verso in uncials, signature on recto in red; l. c. in epp. variously coloured, in Acts red only, twice with arabesque, bird capital rare; s. c. usually black reddened, rarely red; ch. great marked by rather large uncials, red with dashes and flourishes; ch. small with small black uncials between black lines and sinuous vertical line as in D₁^{evv}; ch. Gr. also marked by red uncials and ⲱⲙⲓ 'Greek' in a series continuing throughout epistles to end of Hebrews; quinions as usual, with ending &c. ⲓⲧ ϫⲧ, ⲧϸ ⲉϸ, ⲛⲁⲓ ⲛⲁⲓⲛ, ⲛⲁⲓ ⲛⲏⲓ, ⲓⲐϸ ⲉϸ, ⲓⲧ ϫⲧ; first pages of brilliant ornament resembling Γ^{evv}, the beautiful writing of which is also very similar, but see below; freely glossed in red with many explanations and occasional allusions to readings; in Acts a few explanations and occasional reference to شرح 'another commentary'; foll. not much cut, patched throughout Γ in lower margin, and much of the Acts has injury in upper. Binding recent with four leather clasps. Orthogr. Φ†, scarcely found in Γ^{evv}, is common, but the forms of † and ‡ are not early, the other form of ‡ occurs as final. The ancient writing begins 1 Cor. xvi. 12 ΕΥΧΕΙ ΔΕ. The text agrees with G M. p. 92^b ep. 2 Cor. begins with headpiece, two lines of large black reddened letters, Greek (رومی) n° KΔ, and the number of the epistle (viz. Γ ' Bless me, forgive me, remember me, namely the feeble one, and sinner, for the Lord Jesus to dispose my life according to his holy and blessed wish, and grant me (the) forgiveness of my sins. Amēn.' p. 248^a ep. James begins with brilliant first page consisting of broad borders on upper and outer sides which latter has a further border of the usual arabesque, the whole resembling the ornament of Γ of the Gospels. The upper border contains a label with C̄Ϟ̄Θ̄Ω and the inscription. The text has one line of four ornamented letters, one of tall black reddened, three of shorter letters, three of ordinary red letters, and the remaining four ordinary black. p. 260^a ep. 1 Peter begins without headpiece, with one line of tall ornamented black reddened, three lines of ordinary red letters. p. 272^b ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except only two red lines. p. 281^a ep. 1 John begins as ep. 2 Peter, signature IΩ Δ. p. 293^a ep. 2 John begins as ep. 1. p. 294^b ep. 3 John begins as ep. 2. p. 296^a ep. Jude begins as ep. 3. p. 299^b below the subscription comes subscr. to all the Catholic epp. in very fine large black letters occasionally reddened, tr. in red. fol. 300 is vacant. p. 301^a Acts begins with ornament as for quire beginning, then rectangular headpiece with label containing C̄Ϟ̄Θ̄Ω, and arabesque extending round outer and lower border; the inscription forms two lines of ordinary red letters, then one large word brilliantly adorned, two lines of tall ornamented black reddened, two of ordinary red, and three of ordinary black letters. Signature is ΠΡ Δ-ΞΩΝ. No date of any kind exists in the book. The restored leaves present two different forms of writing. There is some reason for supposing that the ordinary corrector (and glosser) was the original scribe. Lacunae, Rom. i. 1—1 Cor. xvi. 12. Collated in the monastery by the editor, 1893.

Amen. And his name among men Geōrgi (Girgis) the son of Petros (Butrus).¹ Γεωργι is written in the cryptogram of Γ vol. i, p. xc, except that ψ (crypt.) = ρ; the disguised Arabic¹ is 'Girgis the son of Jacob,' or possibly 'Jacob the son of Girgis.' Three more lines of faded and partly erased Arabic occur, in which the word ملك is visible, implying a note of ownership. Four vacant foll., two with watermark an anchor. One more fol. thinner, and with watermark E C, ends the volume.

10. G Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt. (interlined with Arabic), G Rome Vat. Copt. 14, formerly 5 (Greg. 18), imperfect, A. D. 1357 (A. Mart. 1074, Thoth), paper, foll. 350 (+6), col. 1, ll. 21, 28.7 × 20 cm., text 20.3 × 13.5 cm., writing fairly regular, with resemblance to Curzon 121 &c., but smaller; foliated irregularly on verso in red and black uncials, the original uncials leave off in ep. Heb., and later red continue; signature of name of epistle and number irregular; l. c. and s. c. scarcely distinguished; ch. great and small marked by red capitals and red uncials, ordinary verses have black c.; Greek chapters are enumerated in subscr.; no original quire endings &c., but a recent numeration of quires; no punctuation after p. 5, but spaces are left, and a hyphen occasionally occurs before and after -εη-; orn. consists of black and red headpieces and occasional lines of red letters; quotations occasionally noted; there are a few Arabic grammatical and other notes; orthography, εεε is usually written for εε. The text often agrees with Γ M and P. Lacunae, Rom. ix. 15—1 Cor. iv. 14, Acts xxvi. 18 to end. Bound in red morocco, and bearing the arms of Clement XI on the cover, the volume begins with two vacant foll., after which on the first ancient page is Di Girolamo Vecchettis et pri, and a short Arabic note about the meaning of ʾAl in Rom. ii. 4. Portato da me Girolamo Vecchetti da Egitto anno 1591. Jo Baptista Raimundus bibliothecae Vaticanae dono dedit ex Testamento anno 1614.

G Vat. 5. On verso are a few Arabic words and a geometrical figure with ΓΙΟΥC, ΙΗC, ΠΧC, ΘΕΟC. p. 1^a ep. 208 contain an Arabic register of the contents of the volume, giving pages G and numbers. Of the ep. Heb. it is stated وهي في العدد القبطي العاشرة وهي في العدد العربي لعدد الرابع عشر 'And it is in the number of the Coptic the tenth, and the Arabic by number the fourteenth.' p. 208^b has a red and black geometrical ornament with $\text{Ϡ} \text{I} \text{O} \text{C} \text{I} \text{H} \text{C} \text{Π} \text{X} \text{C} \text{Θ} \text{E} \text{O} \text{C}$. p. 209^a ep. James begins with large capital and two lines of red letters. p. 218^b ep. 1 Peter begins with l. c. and one line of red. p. 229^b ep. 2 Peter begins with l. c. only. p. 237^a ep. 1 John begins with s. c. only. pp. 247^b, 248^b epp. 2 and 3 John begin as ep. 2 Peter. p. 253^b Acts begins with l. c. only. foll. 340-350 restored; on the last page in Arabic 'Was completed that (work) in peace from the Lord. Amen. On the day of the blessed sabbath, the fifth of the month Barmūdāh the blessed, 1220 of the pure Martyrs. May the Lord grant us their blessing. Amen. And the glory to him who gives the intellect.' Thus the restoration was made A. D. 1504. One more imperfect fol. which contains a prayer of a deacon in the church of the angel Gabriel at Sha'arān, but the name is lost, and the date not given. Two binding foll. finish the volume.

11. H Paul (Philem., Heb.); Copt.-Arab., London Brit. Mus. Or. 1318 H (Greg. 5), imperfect, A. D. 1416 (A. Mart. 1132), paper, foll. 294 (+ 5), coll. 2, ll. 21, 26.7 × 17.3 cm., text 20 × 13; good writing, resembling C, but nearer to L^{vv} M^{vv}, while the open O recalls D^{vv} E^{vv}; punctuation, red †, and very rarely †•; foliated on verso in uncials and signed on recto with name of epistle; l. c. not much larger than s. red; s. c. black reddened; ch. great marked by red uncials with one line of red letters; ch. small by black uncials, numbering also the epistle; quire ending &c. $\text{I} \text{Ϡ} \text{X} \text{C}$ and $\text{I} \text{Ϡ} \text{X} \text{C}$, with usual ornament; bright coloured, moderate-sized headpieces to epp. with arched or rectangular detail. Orthography, $\text{Ϡ} \text{†}$ occurs once, p. 213^a, 1 Thess. iii. 13. Text agrees closely with O J. The Arabic is slightly glossed. Lacunae, Rom. i. 1-v. 15, Heb. xiii. 21 to end. Half-bound (recently) in black morocco, after binding fol. with 'O. R. 12. Ah.,' on recent first fol. 'Or. 1318 B^t of Sir Ch^{as} A Murray 12 June 1875.' p. 1^a is fragment of fol. 1 of quire 3, ep. Rom. v. 15. p. 42^a ep. Rom. ends, Arabic spells فيو = Phœbe, and after subscr. continues 'With godly love he who observes these letters shall ask of the Lord Christ, who came for the salvation of the world, that he would pardon the poor copyist, drowned in the sea of his many sins, from all his crimes and faults, and according as the brother will say (for him), there shall be to him the double of it. And adoration to God for ever.' p. 42^b ep. 1 Cor. begins with headpiece of broad band and three very short arches over the columns, one line of large archaic and no red

H lines. p. 100^b ep. 2 Cor. begins as ep. 1 Cor., with headpiece of band including vacant label, and longer arches. pp. 139^b, 158^b, 179^a, 193^a, 206^b, 219^a, 226^a, 241^b, 252^b epp. Gal., Eph., Philip., Col., 1 Thess., 2 Thess., 1 Tim., 2 Tim., Titus begin with headpiece and rectangular detail, one large archaic line as before. p. 259^a ep. Philem. begins with broader headpiece without arches or other detail, the same line of large archaic letters. p. 261^b the usual ornamental red and black lines below the subscr., then $\alpha\mu\lambda\beta'$ 'نجزة هذه في يوم التلاة تسعة وعشرين كيهك سنة ١١٣٢' (was) on day three, the twenty-nine of Kīhak 1132 (= A. D. 1415). p. 262^a ep. Heb. begins as ep. Gal. &c. The text ends at Heb. xiii. 21; then come one older fol. with three crescents watermark and one recent restored fol.; on the first occurs a pencil note, '294 ff. July 1875, exam^d by C. T.'; and finally one binding fol. ends the book.

Titus except no peculiar lines and more arabesque. p. 251^b ep. James begins with headpiece of different kind, rectangle with inscription on central label, and yellow border outside the interlacing work, one line of tall red, two of thick black archaic letters, outer marginal arabesque. p. 263^b ep. 1 Peter begins with headpiece of ep. Col., one line of tall black. p. 276^b ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except CϞN ΘΕΩ and two lines of thick archaic letters. p. 285^a ep. 1 John begins as ep. 1 Peter except two lines as above and outer marginal arabesque; at end of verse 17 is red آخر فصل as well as the ordinary آخره. p. 296^b ep. ends with Arabic 'Was completed the first epistle of John, and to God be the glory for ever and ever.' p. 297^a ep. 2 John begins as ep. 1 except only one line, no subscr. p. 298^b ep. 3 John begins nearly as ep. 2, and ends 'Was completed the third epistle of John with help of God. Amen.' p. 300^b ep. Jude begins with headpiece &c. as ep. 3 John, and three lines of black archaic letters. p. 303^b ep. ends with 'Was completed the epistle of Jude, and it is the completion of the pure fathers the apostles, their prayer be with us. Amen.' p. 304^a Acts begins with headpiece of three round arches in perspective, black CϞN ΘΕΩ under two, one line of tall black letters. foll. 385-388 restored. fol. 398 restored. p. 415^b ends K without subscription except Ar. 'And to God be the glory.' Two binding leaves finish the volume.

15. L (Lagarde b) Paul (Philem., Heb., Tim.); Copt.-Arab., Berlin L (Royal Orient. 116 [Greg. 14], 115 [Greg. 13]) and Copenhagen (Royal Orient. 19 [Greg. 21]), imperfect, XIV century, paper, foll. 88 + 105 + 31, coll. 2, ll. 32-33, 26.2 × 17.6 cm., text 21.5 × 13.4 cm.; 26.7 × 17.8 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; 26.8 × 18 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; writing of early XIV century, the dots and lines over the letters appear to have been added by a later hand, and they are absent in the Copenhagen book; no original punctuation after Rom. i. 25, and there is none in the Copenhagen book; foliated in uncials on verso, signed with name of epistle on recto and ΠΡΟC on verso; l. c. very rare; ch. great marked by one line of red letters and red uncial; ch. small by black cursives with number also of epistle; quire endings &c. IC ΙΧ ΞC (IC, ΙΨ) ΘC, sometimes absent, ΙΧ = ΠΧC? is peculiar to these books, usual central small orn., probably of the time of writing; scarcely any other ornament, only occasional headpiece; there are references to quotations and liturgical notices. It is not known how this MS. became separated into the present condition. Petraeus transcribed the epistles to Ephesians and Philippians from the Copenhagen book, and this transcript is contained in a small quarto volume at Berlin (Orient. 169), in which is a title-page written thus: 'C^ΩΡΡΗΝΗΥ† EPISTOLA S. PAULI AD EPHESIOS AEGYPTIACE SEU COPTICE, In linguam Latinam ad verbum fideliter translata. Nuper Alcairo totius Aegypti metropoli unā cum aliis MSS. Copticis asportata; Materia Europaeis intacta, nunc primum tentata, et ob venerandam Pharaonicae Linguae antiquitatem Orbi literato exhibita, ac in lucem emissa M. THEODORO PETRAEO, Flensburgo-Holzato ΤΑΡΧΗΝ Ἰ†CΟΦΙΑ †ΞΟ† Ἰ†ΠΕΡΟC ΤΕ ("The beginning of wisdom is the fear of God") † LVGDVNI BATAVORUM impensis Auctoris, et Typographejo Nisseliano CIO IOC LX.' The Latin translation continues for only one page. This transcript was collated by the editor in 1899, and there can be no doubt about the exemplar, viz. the MS. at Copenhagen. This MS. at Copenhagen has been interleaved, probably by Petraeus, and amongst the watermarks are a heart and fleur de lys, these marks occur in Berlin 115 (foll. 17-21), and the heart alone in Berlin 116 (fol. 4, and at the end). Text often agrees with D and D'. Lacunae, Rom. i. 16-18, 20-24, 1 Cor. iii. 15-iv. 6, Heb. ix. 22-x. 18, xii. 16 to end. [116] The third binding leaf has 'Epistolae Pauli ad Romanos et utraque ad Corinthios

The only difference from B. 115, 116 is that the pagination of the recent L owner (Petraeus?) begins again for each epistle. There are only very few notes in the interleaves. p. 1 has the same kind of letters $\text{R } \text{Z} \text{I}$ $\text{p} \text{a} \text{p} \text{i} ?$ $\text{p} \text{c} \text{e} \lambda \acute{\epsilon} \text{e} \text{i} \text{t}$ $\text{p} \text{r} \text{c} \text{e} \text{i} \lambda \text{o} \text{v}$ 'And it is the fourth epistle of his epistles.' Ep. Gal. begins with $\text{C} \text{I} \text{I}$ and red C. A. inser. and small black capital. The dates 1671-1745 are written in a Danish statement on this page, and the name 'Fredericus Rostgaard' occurs at the foot. The original foliation of B. 116 is continued $\text{C} \text{I} \text{Z}$, and this page is signed $\text{p} \text{p} \text{r} \text{o} \text{c} \text{ } \bar{\text{Z}}$ (the fourth epistle). p. 11^b ep. ends without subscr.; then two vacant recent foll., watermarks 1^o heart, 2^o shield, crown, and lion supporter. p. 12^a signed $\text{e} \text{p} \text{h} \text{e} \text{c} \text{o} \text{c}$, the same kind of letters $\text{R } \text{Z} \text{I}$ $\text{Z} \text{e} \text{e} \text{i} \text{c}$ $\text{p} \text{c} \text{e} \lambda \epsilon$ $\text{e} \text{e}$ $\text{p} \text{c} \text{e} \text{i} \lambda$ $\text{p} \text{o} \lambda \text{o} \text{c}$ $\text{e} \lambda \rho \text{c} \lambda$ 'And it is the fifth epistle of the epistles of Paul the Apostle.' Ep. Eph. begins as ep. Gal. p. $\bar{\text{p}} \bar{\text{B}}$ (12^b) begins new pagination 2 for Eph. p. 23^a ep. ends without subscr. p. $\bar{\text{p}} \bar{\text{I}} \bar{\text{V}}$ (23^b) 1 for Philip. also signed $\text{p} \text{p} \text{r} \text{o} \text{c} \text{ } \bar{\text{V}}$. Ep. Philip. begins as epp. Eph. and Gal. p. 31^b ep. ends with C. A. subscr., of which Ar. 'Was completed the epistle of Philippi, and he had written it from Rome, and sent it with Timotheus and Fortunatus, and adoration to God for ever and ever.' One interleaf ends the volume. On the cover is 12 19.

And that (was) from a copy existing in the city Djirjā, its date year, thousand and three hundred six and forty of the pure Martyrs. And the copier of it (was) the presbyter Wahabah from the district of the monasteries, east of the city Akhmim. And it is said that he wrote it from an ancient copy which existed in the district of Edfa, from the hand of the father the honoured bishop Anba Yūnas, the native of Edfa, bishop at that time. And verily it was accurate, and free from error in Coptic and Arabic. And as for him who caused this (lit. that) book to be written, and (who) spent upon it of his wealth, it was our honoured father Rafāil who did it for the good of the Coptic community. May God most high preserve him by the angel of peace. Amen. And it was written by the hand of the miserable servant, the poor sinner who claims to be the weak and incapable; and he is not expert in copying except by the help of God most high; and our Lady the Virgin who assisted us in completing it; but he is named by the name "the deacon Ibrahīm," from the district of Tahta¹. And he makes many prostrations at the feet of his lords, his fathers, and his brothers, Christians who look upon this imperfect writing, that they may remember the poor copyist. And every one who finds an error, and corrects it, may God smooth his way to the Paradise of delight. Amen. And thanks to God for evermore.' Six more foll. with three crescents watermark end the volume. .

IC ΧC ϣC ΘC, with usual ornt.; orn.

G cross and first page and arabesque foliage and birds &c. at capitals; liturgical words. Text (glossed abundantly) usually agrees with E F. Bound in native dark brown leather with recent back, the cover has inside the bookplate of Bibliotheca Lindesiana and $\frac{E}{12}$. Two binding foll., the second bearing in pencil 'Crawford Coptic MSS N° 14 (Tatt. 396).' The first original fol. is lost. p. 1^a has 396 and 14 W. Rodwell cat., and a few scraps of Arabic, one being part of a dedication to a church $\text{بِيعَة عَلَى بَيْعَة}$. p. 1^b has a large cross of bright colour & IHC XC KAI NI O , also two florets above arms and four below. p. 2^a bright first page, headpiece (with label) of interlacing work continuing as outer and lower border CPII OEW and tr., one line of large yellow, two of smaller yellow, three of black archaic, and one word of ordinary black letters, Arabic having three first lines red. p. 2^b at v. 3 very large WOTNI with birds above and below, one line large black archaic and one ordinary red letters. p. 99^b at end of text $\text{EΛΔ IKALIO-TPAΦO PETPO XE ECTA}$. 'The least copyist, Petrou, year of the Martyrs 1091.' Then 'Was completed the volume of the revelation (جليان) of Yūhannā in peace from the Lord. He in his mercy shall work mercy with the provider, the possessor (القائى) and the reader and the poor sinner copyist of it (نائل), and to Him the glory for evermore, and upon us his mercy.' foll. 100-106 contain Coptic writing headed $\text{ΠΙΣΤΕΟΥ ΕΤΟΥΣΟΥ ΕΒΛΕΟC}$ (sic) $\text{ΣΑΧΕΝΤΑΠΟΥΔ-ΛΥΕΨΙC ΕΘΟΥΔΗ}$ 'The blessing which is read before the holy Apocalypse.' p. 106^b has Arabic 'Was completed the holy Blessing, and with the completion of it was completed the pure book, the revelation (جليان) of Yūhannā, the virgin, the beloved of our Lord Jesus Christ, on the holy sabbath day, which is the twentieth day of the month Abīb of year a thousand one and ninety of the pure Martyrs, corresponding to the thirteenth day of the month Šafar, year seven and seventy-seven hundred of the Hijrah. And that was for the providing (اهتام) of the shaykh, the venerable, the revered, the deacon the honoured the most noble Rafūyīl, the son of the shaykh the archon (الارخن) Mikhāyīl. May God make lasting his provision (ادام اهتام). He wrought this beautiful memorial that he might find with it mercy before the throne (منبر) of our Lord Jesus Christ. He in his mercy shall cause him to attain to knowledge and practice, and bring him by his help to the kingdom of the heaven, after having fulfilled the term of his life, and God shall give him long life and sound intellect, and true faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and protect him with his holy angels henceforth and for ever. Amen. And the miserable scribe of G it asks every one who studies it to turn away (يصفح) from its error, and correct its fault (يسد ظلمة), and remember him with forgiveness of his sins; and (he who says any (prayer) may he have) reward thirty and sixty and an hundredfold, and in the next world life eternal. H and two of black. p. 131 at end is Arabic 'Was finished by the help of God and his assistance the book of the Apocalypse, which is the vision of Saint John the evangelist. The Lord shall have mercy on us by his blessings. Amen. On day three, the ninth of the month Masry, year 1117 (1401) of the pure Martyrs; may God grant us the blessing of their prayers. Amen. Undertook it for himself and for him who—please God most high—will come after him, the miserable poor and weak servant, dust, useless (الغريشتر), more vicious (الموعب) than the rest of the worthless, the bare of all excellencies, the greatest sinner of all men, Yūḥannā the son of Faraj Allah; and he asks the masters, the readers in it and the lookers in it, to turn their face from its error; and he who says any (prayer) may he have his reward in the kingdom of the heavens for ever and ever.' There is a collator's note. Then again in Arabic, 'Remember, O Lord, thy servant the poor sinner drowned in the sea of sins and crimes, thy servant Ibrahīm in name a monk; remember him in the kingdom of the heavens. Amen.' After two lines of Coptic scribbling, 'This book is in perpetual, sure, and lasting dedication to the monastery of the saint, great among the saints, glorified among the spiritual, the saint Anba Bishūy in the desert, in the desert of Shihāt in the mountain Al Iṭrūn. So it is not permitted from the Lord (adoration to him most high) to any one to cause it to go forth from its dedication by any manner of means; or * * * * . So he shall be condemned before the Lord Christ and the patron (ماحب) of the monastery; and he shall not have kinship with the saints and' (four more words).  'With God (the) strong. In the name of the Father and the Son and the holy Spirit, one God. This is our God, I glorify thee. Amēn. He finished the book, (the) Apogalympsis of John the Theologos and evangelist, the beloved of our Lord Jesus Christ, in peace of God our Saviour.

 Amēn. And its writer the poor, the least, Mattheos the son of Abraam, deacon of the church of God which is in the city of Chēmi. Christ our God, who rose from them who are dead, went up to the heavens. May he forgive us our sins by the intercessions of the Theotokos, Maria the Virgin, and Markos the evangelist, and the beloved John the apostle and evangelist. Amēn. Amēn. Amēn.' There is an Arabic translation of the above, but not of the following concluding words below the lines, ΕΒΟΛ ΙΒ ΕΠΠΕΠΟΒ ΔΕΠΤΡΟΛΕΠΙ ΠΩΟ ΡΕΠ ΠΙΛΑΡ-ΤΤΡΟC ΕΘΤ 'On twelve of the (month) Epob (Abīb), in the year thousand five hundred and fifty (100550) of the holy Martyrs.' p. 79^a within ornamental border C⁸ tr., then below 'The poor miserable copyist Maty the son of Ibrahim.' Then 'The provider for this noble book, which is the vision of saint Yūhannā the beloved of Christ, named the Apocalypse, (was) Bākhūm the Farshuṭy, the son of the brother of Anta Sārābāmūn the bishop of Al Manūfiyah, and the name of his father Yūhannā of Naḳādā. And the name of the grandfather, the father of the aforesaid bishop, was Bākhūm of Akhmīm, beloved of our Lord

Z Jesus Christ. May the God of the heaven pardon him his sins, by the intercession of her who has intercession, as mother of God, with her Son, the pure Maryam and patron of this holy book, and of all the company of the martyrs, the elect and the righteous. Amēn &c. And the blessing of saint Anba Bākhūm, the father of the spiritual community (شركة). Amēn.' p. 79^b the 'blessing' begins in Coptic, ΟΥΧΩΣΕΕ ΠΤΕΠΙΣΜΟΤ ΕΘΟΥΣΑΚ 'a book of the holy blessing!' It consists of prayer for pardon and understanding, short statements about holy days, enumeration of saints whose blessing is invoked. After this are five foll. of prayers and short homily, then p. 96^a a concluding Arabic statement 'Was completed the holy Blessing, and with its completion was completed the pure book, the revelation of Yūhannā the virgin, the holy Yūhannā of the Apocalypse, on the blessed sabbath day, three and twenty of the month Amshīr, year a thousand and five hundred and fifty, Coptic of the pure Martyrs, corresponding to twenty of the month Shūal, year 1249, a thousand and two hundred nine and forty of the Arabic Hijrah, corresponding to the year eleven of the Ḥamādiān¹ Republic (الجمهورية الحمادي). And the provider for it was the learned Bākhūm al 'Arif the son of the shaykh in Abrahamian bosoms, the late Yūhannā, known as Niyākh of Nakādah, the brother of the father, the honoured Anba Sārābāmūn, bishop of the see of Manūfiyah. May God most high prolong his headship. And he who copied this noble volume was the learned Maty the deacon, one of the teachers of the school of the learned Bākhūm al 'Arif the son of the learned Ibrahīm, Abu Assa'ad the native of Dahsur in the days of the government of the learned father, the chosen vessel, the honoured of our fathers, Anba Butrus, the ninth after the hundred of the number of the Patriarchs of Alexandria. May God most high prolong his government by the intercession of our Lady and the pure disciple. O Lord, pardon the sins of thy servant the writer of these letters, and save him from the temptation. Amen.' p. 96^b contains a table of the cardinal numbers, units, tens, hundreds, to four thousand, giving the Coptic cursive, uncial, and Arabic form and the Coptic name of each. The book ends with eleven pages of 'the preface which the sons of Al Assāl composed,' which begins on p. 102^b. The last vacant fol. has pencil note, '102 Folios P B ex^d 1898.'

Note on the Liturgical Words.

At the beginning of chapters ii, iv, v, vi, viii, x, xi, xii, xiii, xiv, xvii, xviii, and at the verses i. 10, ii. 18, iii. 6, 13, vii. 9, ix. 6, xiii. 11, xiv. 12, 16, xv. 5, xvi. 12, xviii. 20, xix. 11, xx. 6, xxi. 2, 21 occur words indicating some ritual usage of the book. With slight variation they Z are found in MSS. A D E F G H Z, also by later hand in B. The shortened forms $\text{H}=\text{H}\chi\text{OC}$, and much oftener $\overset{\omega}{\text{O}}$ or $\overset{\psi}{\text{O}}=\text{O}\tau\omega\zeta\epsilon\epsilon$ (also written $\text{B}\omega\zeta\epsilon\epsilon$), followed by a word which is evidently the name of some hymn or verse, begin the rite. Words characteristic of the passage, sometimes taken from the text, make a 'versicle,' after which other Coptic words preceded by $\text{B}\omega\zeta\epsilon\epsilon$ or H probably belong to another hymn or verse. The following are the names of the hymns or tones occurring in the upper line: '(H) Babylon, (H) three things, (H) Joseph, (H) key, (H) the mystery, (H) Job, the prophet, a Pharisee, the joy, its key, my fathers, $\tau\epsilon\pi\rho\omega$ "thy storm"? the seven ranks (or dignities), $\zeta\epsilon\epsilon\text{OI}$ "would that"? my father the chief priest, I cast the book (?), I saw a lamb, the country, $\&\text{NINEN}\&\text{I}$ "bring these" (?), they became rich, rejoice, it was completed, concerning a woman, my Master, (H) thy Rōmania, place of this gift, I saw three, (H) if those.' The middle words are, 'Write the things which thou sawest, these are the things which he saith, the woman "Jezebel," he who will overcome, I will make him, take for the healing, I John saw, behold the lion overcame, I saw a black horse, I saw a great wonder, there was silence ($\chi\&\psi$) in the heaven, the first woe passed, I saw an angel, these are the olive trees, a woman clad with the sun, I saw a great city, this is the place of patience, I saw a lamb, blessed are they, I saw a great wonder, these which the Theologos, they remembered, I saw a woman, the woman whom thou sawest, write that which thou sawest, I saw a white horse, blessed, I saw a fair city, the city of the great king.' The third or lower words are, 'I having fallen asleep, O Lord my God, (H) the ark, come and see (of my father Shenouti, Z), the soldiers toiled, they having brought the writings (he bowed the heaven, Z), the tympanum (?), the mounted men (the sweet, Z), I saw three crowns, Adam Abel (he of the wing, Z), I saw my hands, (H) I found the time, along the choirs, there is a dove, my scribe (three years, Z), he of the wings, the tympanum (I saw the lamb of God, Z), but ye, (H) the gold (the choice gold, Z), we worship (the evangelist, Z), Adam Abel, (H) Prologon (my virgin received, Z), my scribe (the queen, lover of gold, Z), (H) four (see seven bonds? Z), (H) two, (H) thou (fem.) art higher than the Cherubim, (H) I saw three crowns (come and see this bride, Z).' MS. Z agrees twice (xii. 1 and xx. 6) with the rest, occasionally omits and sometimes gives the Arabic name of the response or tone or hymn, 'the tone of the Amir Tādrus, of the great martyr (sic) Anba Shanūdah, of the four creatures, of the angel Michael, of St. George, of the king (الملك) Constantine, of the resurrection, of the

Z nativity of Mary, of the infants, of the Virgin, of the angel Gabriel sublime in annunciation, of Eudokia the queen, of the Son, Jesus Christ.'

At xxi. 19 after the word ΕΤΤΔΙΗΟΥΤΤ all the MSS. except BCN have a rubric, 'The bishop chants (ΕΡΘΥΛΛΗΝΟΣ).' D Arabic, 'The patriarch chants thus to tone? or the bishop or the priest or, if he should be chosen, the deacon.' Then ΔΠΟΚ ΔΙΠΔΥ ΕΠΚΩΤ ΠΟΥΠΟΛΙΣ ΕΣΟΥΧ (ΕΣΤΟΥΤΣ, Ε: -ΩΤΣ, F: ΠΤΟΥΤΣ, Α) ΠΠΟΥΒ ΘΙΩΠΙ ΞΞΞΝΙ ΘΙ(ΟΥ, Α)ΞΞΑΡΓΑΡΙΤΗΣ ΕΘ- ΠΕΣΩΣ ΕΡΕΠΕΚΩΤΗΡ ΘΕΠΤΕΣΕΝ† ΕΥ†ΧΛΟΞ ΘΙΤΑΦΕ ΠΠΗ ΕΘΞΞΙ ΞΞΞΟΥ 'I saw the circuit of a city gilded with gold, beautiful with precious stones and pearl, our Saviour being in her midst crowning them who love him.' Further, after ΧΑΡΧΗΝΩΠ, ΣΑΡΑΠΟΠ, ΤΟΠΔΔΙΟΠ, and ΔΞΞΘΙΤΟΣ follows the response which in D the people are directed to chant, ΕΡΕ- ΠΕΠΕΚΩΤΗΡ &c. 'having &c.' B gives this form in a rough later hand, the response varying, 'our Saviour being,' 'crowning with honour them who love him,' 'Jesus being in its midst,' 'Emmanuel being in its midst.'

Rome. ¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the Gospel: for it is the (lit. a) power of God unto [a] salvation to all who believe; the Jew first, and the Greek. ¹⁷ For the (lit. a) righteousness of God will be revealed in it from [a] faith unto [a] faith, according as it is written: 'The righteous will live from (the) faith.'

For God manifested it unto them. ²⁰ His unseen things from (the) creation of the world, being understood in his creatures, are visible, that is to say, his eternal power and his divinity. through the written law and the circumcision, because (or, that) thou wast a transgressor of the law. ²⁸ For the Jew is not (he) who is *outwardly the Jew, nor is (the) circumcision which is manifest in (the) flesh the circumcision: ²⁹ but (Δ) the inward (lit. who is hidden) Jew, this is the Jew, and the circumcision (is that) of the heart in [a] spirit, not in [a] writing, whose praise is not from man, but (Δ) it is from God.

III. What then is the advantage (lit. the more) of the Jew? or what is (the) profit of the circumcision? ³ Much it is according to every way: first indeed because they were intrusted with the words of God. ³ For what if some were unbelieving? Will their unbelief do away with the faith of God? ⁴ It shall not be. But let God be speaking truth, and every man speaking falsehood; according as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy words and overcome when thou wilt be judged. ⁵ If our wrongdoing will set up the righteousness of God, what shall (lit. will) we say? Is God a wrongdoer being about to bring his anger? I said he who worketh not, but is believing him who justifieth the ungodly—his faith is reckoned to him for [a] righteousness. ⁶ According as also David said the blessedness (ἁγιασμοῦ) of the man to whom God will reckon the righteousness without work. ⁷ Blessed are they whose lawlessnesses were forgiven, and whose sins were covered over. ⁸ Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord will not reckon sin. ⁹ This blessedness (ἁγιασμοῦ) then was it put upon (the) circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision? For we say that (the) faith of Abraam was reckoned to him for [a] righteousness. ¹⁰ How then was it reckoned? when he was (ἐφ' ἑαυτοῦ) in (the) circumcision, or when he was in the uncircumcision? Not when he was in (the) circumcision, but (ἐν) in the uncircumcision: ¹¹ and he received a sign (namely) of (the) circumcision, a seal of the righteousness, of (the) faith which was in the uncircumcision; to cause him to be father of all ^a who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, for [a] righteousness to be reckoned to them; ¹² and father of (the) circumcision, not of them only who through one man, and through (the) sin (thē) death happened, and thus the death went into every man *in whom they sinned. ¹³ For until (the) law (the) death was being in the world: but (the) sin was not being reckoned, there being no law. ¹⁴ But (Δ.) (the) death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them who did not sin in (the) likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is (the) type of him who cometh.

¹⁵ But (Δ.) not according as the trespass so is the grace. For if in the trespass of one many died, much more the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man Jesus Christ abounded unto many. ¹⁶ And not according as through one who sinned (so) is the gift: for the judgement indeed is through one unto a condemnation, but the grace through many trespasses unto a justification. ¹⁷ For if through (the) sin of the one (the) death reigned, much more they who will receive the abundance of the grace and the free gift of the righteousness shall reign in a life for ever die, she is free from (the) law, not to be called 'adulteress,' should she be with another husband. ⁴ Wherefore then, my brethren, ye also died to (the) law through (the) body of Christ, to become (united) to another, that is to say, him who rose from them who are dead, that ye might bear fruit to God. ⁵ For we being in the flesh, the passions of the sins, those through the law, were working in our members (the) bearing fruit to (the) death. ⁶ But now we were discharged (lit. done away with) from (the) laws, having died in that in which we were held, so that we might be servants in a newness of the spirit, and not in an oldness of [a.] writing. ⁷ What then shall (lit. will) we say? (The) law is (the) sin. It shall not be. But (Δ) (the) sin I had not known, except I knew it through the law. For [the] lust I was not knowing, except (the) law said: 'Thou shalt not lust'; ⁸ but (the) sin having taken an occasion through the commandment worked all lust in me: for without (the) law (the) sin was being dead. ⁹ But I was being alive once without the law. flesh it is not possible to please God. ⁹ But ye (pron) were not being (ΧΗ) in (the) flesh, but (Δ) in the spirit, if there is the (lit. a) spirit of God dwelling in you. But he in whom the spirit of Christ dwelleth not, that one (lit. this who is there) is not of him. ¹⁰ But if Christ (is) in you the body indeed is dead because of sin; but the spirit is [a] life because of [the] righteousness. ¹¹ But if the spirit of him who raised Jesus from them who are dead dwelleth in you, then he who raised Christ Jesus from them who are dead shall make live your bodies also, which die, through his spirit which dwelleth in you.

¹² So (Ϸ&ρ&Δ) then, my brethren, we are not debtors to (lit. in) flesh to live according to flesh: ¹³ for if ye live according to flesh, ye will die; but if in the spirit ye kill the works of the body, ye will live. ¹⁴ For they who walk in the spirit of God, these are the sons of God. ¹⁵ For ye were not receiving a spirit of [a] servitude into [a] fear again; but ye received a spirit of [a] sonship, this in which ye cry: 'Abba [the] Father.' ¹⁶ And the spirit himself witnesseth thee be called (i.e. invited). ⁸ That is to say, that the sons of (the) flesh—these are not the sons of God; but (Δ) the sons of the promise will be reckoned for a seed. ⁹ For this word is that of (ΦΔ) a promise: 'According to this time I shall come, and a son shall be to Sarra.' ¹⁰ But not only (so), but (Δ) also (the) Erebekka as well (ΚΕ), having conceived from one bed, of Isaac our father. ¹¹ For when they were not yet born, nor yet had they done good or evil, that the choice which God ordained from (the) first might be permanent, being not from works, but (Δ) from him who calleth, ¹² it was said to her: 'The elder (lit. great) shall be servant to the younger (lit. little).' ¹³ According as it is written: 'Jacob indeed I loved, but Esau I hated.' ¹⁴ What then shall (lit. will) we say? Is there [a] wrongdoing with God? It shall not be.

¹⁵ For he saith to Moses: 'I shall (lit. will) have mercy on whom I shall (lit. will) have mercy, and I shall (lit. will) have compassion on whom I shall (lit. will) have compassion.' ¹⁶ So (ΩΔΡΔ) then it is not of him who wisheth, nor is it of him who runneth, but (Δ) it is of God who hath mercy.

which is (†) from (the) faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart: 'Who will be able to go up to (the) heaven?' That is to say, that he may bring Christ down: ⁷ or, Who will be able to go down to (the) abyss? That is to say, that he may bring Christ up from them who are dead. ⁸ But (Δ) what saith the Scripture? The word is near thee; it is (ΧΗ) in thy mouth, and it is (ΧΗ) in thy heart, that is to say, (the) word of (the) faith which we proclaim, ⁹ that if thou shouldst confess with (lit. in, thus again) thy mouth, that Jesus is the Lord, and believe with thy heart that God raised him from them who are dead, thou shalt be saved: ¹⁰ for with the heart they believe him unto [a] righteousness, but with their mouth they confess him unto [a] salvation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith: 'Every one who believeth him shall not be ashamed.' ¹² For there is no separation of the Jew and the Greek: for this Lord is of all, being rich to all who cry up toward him. ¹³ Every one who will pray (the) name of the Lord shall be saved.

one another; but (Δ) judge this rather, not to set a stumbling-block or an offence for thy brother. ¹⁴ I know and I am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean through itself, except to him who thinketh of something that it is unclean, (then) to that one it is unclean. ¹⁵ For if because of [a] food thy brother was to be offended, then thou walkest not any more according to [a] love. Destroy not him for whom Christ died, with thy food. ¹⁶ Let not then your good be blasphemed: ¹⁷ for the kingdom of God was not being in [an] eating and [a] drinking; but (Δ) it was in [a] righteousness, and [a] peace, and [a] joy in the (lit. a) holy spirit. ¹⁸ For he who serveth Christ in these things pleaseth God, and is upright among [the] men. ¹⁹ So then let us pursue the things of [the] peace, and the things of [the] edifying one another. ²⁰ Pull not down the work of God because of [a] food. All things indeed are clean; but (Δ) it is [an] evil to the man who will eat *with offence. ²¹ It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, and that in which thy brother will stumble.

TO CORINTHIANS 1. II. 1.

I. Paul (the) apostle, who is called^a, of Jesus Christ through (the) wish of God, and Sōsthenēs the brother,² to the church of God which is in Korinthos, they who were sanctified in Christ Jesus, they who are called^a, who are holy, with all who call on (the) name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, theirs and ours: ³(the) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴I give thanks to my God always for you, and for the grace of God which was given to you in Christ Jesus; ⁵that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all word and all knowledge; ⁶according as the witness of Christ was confirmed in you: ⁷so that ye become^b not lacking in any grace. also of Stephana: further, I know not whether I baptised another. ¹⁷ For Christ sent me not to baptise, but (Δ) to preach good tidings, not in a wisdom of word, that the cross of Christ should not become vain. ¹⁸ For the word of the cross to (ἴτεν) them indeed who will perish is a foolishness, but to us (pronoun) namely those who will be saved it is [a] power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written: 'I shall (lit. will) destroy (the) wisdom of the wise, and (the) knowledge of the understanding ones I shall (lit. will) reject.' ²⁰ Where was a wise man? Where was a scribe? Where was a searcher of this age? Did not God make (the) wisdom of the world foolish? ²¹ For since from the wisdom of God the world knew not God through the wisdom, God was well pleased through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save them who believe. ²² Since the Jews ask signs, and the Greeks seek for the wisdom: ²³ but we (pron.) proclaim Christ crucified: the Jews indeed it is a scandal to them, but (to) the Gentiles it is a foolishness; ²⁴ but to us (pron.), namely those who will be saved, the Jews and the Greeks, Christ is a power of God and a wisdom of God.

will be burnt, will suffer loss: but he himself will be saved, but thus as through [a] fire. ¹⁶ Ye know not that ye (are) a temple of God, and the spirit of God dwelt in you. ¹⁷ He, then, who will defile the temple of God, this (one) will God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which ye are. ¹⁸ Let not any one deceive himself. He who thinketh among you that he is wise in this age, let him become foolish, that he may become wise. ¹⁹ For (the) wisdom of this world is a foolishness with God. For it is written: 'He who overpowereth the wise in their craftiness'; ²⁰ and again: 'The Lord knoweth the reasonings of wise (men) that they are vain.' ²¹ Wherefore let not any one boast himself in [the] men. For all things are yours; ²² whether Paulos, or Apollō, or Kēpha, or the world, or (the) life, or (the) death, or the things which are, or the things which will be; all are yours; ²³ but ye are of (κ&.) Christ, but Christ is of (φ&.) God.

IV. Thus also let [the] men think of us as officers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. ² Further, they seek here in the stewards that one should be found made rich without us ye reigned: and I would that ye had reigned, that we also might share with you in reigning.

⁹ For I think that God manifested us, namely, the apostles last, as sentenced to death, because we became a spectacle to the world and the angels and the men. ¹⁰ We are fools because of Christ, ye are wise in Christ; we (are) weak, but ye are strong; ye are honoured, but we are despised.

¹¹ Up to this hour we hunger, and we thirst, we are naked, and we are buffeted, and we are not settled; ¹² we toil, working with ($\bar{\nu}$) our own hands: they rail at us, and we bless them; being persecuted, we are longsuffering; ¹³ being blasphemed, we beseech them: we became as the rubbish of this world. We became the filth of every one up to this hour. ¹⁴ I was not reproaching you, writing these things to you, but (Δ) teaching you as beloved sons of mine. ¹⁵ For if ye have ten thousand guides in Christ, but (Δ) not many fathers: in Christ Jesus through the Gospel I (pron.) begat you.

Judge ye them who are within, ¹³ but God shall judge them who are outside. Take away from you the evil (man).

VI. There is one (who) will dare among you, having a matter between him and his neighbour, to take judgement from (ἐξ) the wrongdoers, and not from the saints. ³ Or know ye not that the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged before (ἐν) you, ye were not being worthy then of small places of judgement.

³ Ye know not that we shall (lit. will) judge angels. Much more then things of this life. ⁴ If indeed then ye have places of judgement of this life, them who are despised in the church, these cause to sit (in judgement). ⁵ I am saying it for a reproach to you. Thus there is not any

VII. But concerning the things which ye wrote to me: it is good for the man not to touch (a) woman. ² But because of the fornications, let each one ³ have his wife, and let each one (fem.) have her husband. ³ Let the husband give that which he ought to the wife: thus also the wife, let her give that which she ought to her husband. ⁴ The wife hath not authority over (αα) her own body, but (Δ) it is the husband: but thus also the husband hath not authority over (αα) his own body, but (Δ) it is the wife. ⁵ Defraud not one another, except perhaps in [a] consent for a time; that ye may devote (yourselves) to [the] prayer, and again come together, that Satan may not tempt you because of your incontinency.

⁶ But this I say according to a concession, not according to commandment. ⁷ But I wish that every man should be like me, but (Δ) each one has a grace from God; the one indeed in this manner, but another in this other manner.

separated: not in bondage (lit. servant) is the brother or the sister in such cases: God called you in [a] peace. ¹⁶ For how (lit. where) knewest thou, [the] wife, that perhaps thou wilt be able to save thy husband? Or how (lit. where) knewest thou, [the] man, that perhaps thou wilt be able to save thy wife? ¹⁷ (It must not be) except in the manner which God ordained for each one, as God called each, thus let him walk. Thus also I command in all the churches. ¹⁸ One was called being circumcised. Let him not become uncircumcised. One was called in [the] uncircumcision. Let him not be circumcised. ¹⁹ For (the) circumcision is nothing, and [the] uncircumcision is nothing, but (&) the keeping of the commandments of God. ²⁰ Let each one, in the calling in which he was called, abide. ²¹ Thou wast called being a servant. Let it not be a care to thee: but (&) if it is possible for thee to become free, become it rather. ²² For the servant who was called in the Lord is a freedman of the Lord: thus also the freeman who was called is a servant of Christ. ²³ Ye were bought with a price; become not servant to [the] men. ²⁴ Let each one, my right to know; ³ but he who loveth God, the same (lit. this) was known by him. ⁴ Concerning the meats, then, of the things slain for idols, we know that (an) idol is nothing in the world^a, and that there is no God except one. ⁵ For even if there are some being called 'God,' whether in (the) heaven, or upon the earth; as there are many gods and many lords. ⁶ But to us (pron.) one is God the Father, through whom are all things, and we also into him; one is our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we also through him. ⁷ But (Δ) (the) knowledge (is) not in all. For some up to now in the custom of the idols eat it as a thing slain for idols; and their conscience being weak unto them is polluted. ⁸ But (it is) not a meat which will commend us to God: neither, should we eat not, shall (lit. will) we be deficient; neither, should we eat, shall (lit. will) we abound. ⁹ But see lest by any means this your authority should be a stumbling-block to them all these things because of the Gospel, that I may share it (with others). ²⁴ Ye know not that they who run in the stadium, run indeed all, but one receiveth the palm.

But thus run, that ye may attain. ²⁵ But every one who striveth for the mastery layeth hold on himself in every-thing: they indeed, that they may receive a crown which will perish; but we an imperishable. ²⁶ But I (pron.) run thus, as not covertly; thus I fight, not as beating the air: ²⁷ but (Δ) I bruise my body, and I make it servant: lest by any means, having proclaimed to others, I myself should be found [being] reprobate.

² But I honour you because ye remember me in all things, and according as I delivered to you the traditions, ye lay hold on them. ³ I wish you to know (lit. knowing) that (the) head of every man is Christ, but (the) head of the woman is her husband, but (the) head of Christ is God. ⁴ Every man who prayeth or prophesieth, having his head covered, is shaming his head. ⁵ But every woman praying or prophesying with her head not covered shameth her head: for it is one and it is the same as ($\bar{\nu}$) she whose head is shaven. ⁶ For if a woman will not cover her head, then let her shave it: if it is a dishonour unto a woman to shear her head, or to shave it, let her cover her head. ⁷ For the man indeed ought not to cover his head, because he is an image and a glory of God: but the woman—she is a glory of her husband. ⁸ For the man was not brought from the woman, but (Δ) the woman from the man: ⁹ for the man was not also created because of the woman, but (Δ) the woman because of the man: ¹⁰ therefore the woman ought to put a veil upon her head because of the angels.

¹⁸ For first indeed, being about to assemble together in the church, I hear of divisions being among you, and I partly believe (it). ¹⁹ For there must be heresies among you, that the chosen also who are among you might be manifested. ²⁰ Being about to assemble, then, together, it is not to eat a Lord's Supper: ²¹ for each one taketh before (another) from his supper to eat; there is (one) who is hungry indeed, but there is (one) who is drunken. ²² For have ye not houses to eat and to drink (in)? Or despised ye the church of God, and shamed them who have not? What shall (lit. will, thus again) I say to you? (Is it) that I justify you in this? I shall not justify you.

²³ For I (pron.) received from the Lord that which I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was about to be betrayed (lit. given) took a loaf; ²⁴ and he gave thanks, he brake it, and he said: 'This is my body, which will be given for you: this do for (e) remembrance of me.' ²⁵ Thus know, and in [a] part we prophesy: ¹⁰ but if the perfect should come, the in part will be done away. ¹¹ Being a child, I was speaking as a child, I was meditating as a child, I was thinking as a child, when I became man I did away the things of my childhood. ¹² For we see now through a glass in a likeness, then we shall (lit. will) see face to face. I know now in [a] part; but then (lit. in the time) I shall (lit. will) know, according as I was known. ¹³ But now these three abide, (the) faith, [the] hope, (the) love; but the great among these is [the] love. XIV. Pursue after [the] love, but be zealous for the spiritual (gifts), but rather that ye may prophesy. ² He who speaketh in (the) tongue is speaking not to the men but (Δ) God; for no one heareth him: in the spirit, then, he speaketh mysteria. ³ But he who prophesieth spoke to the men for an edification and a comfort and a consolation. ⁴ He who speaketh in (the) tongue edified himself alone; but he who prophesieth edified a church.

⁵ But I wish you all to speak (lit. speaking) in tongues, boast, my brethren, this which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³² If humanly (speaking) I fought with the wild beast in Ephesos, what is my gain? If the dead will not rise, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall (lit. will) die. ³³ Go not astray: for the evil words corrupt the good hearts. ³⁴ Be watchful righteously, and sin not; for an ignorance of God (it is) which is in some: I spoke to you in [a] shame. ³⁵ But (Δ) there is one (who) will say: 'How will the dead rise? But in what body came they?' ³⁶ [The] senseless (man), that which thou (pron.) sowest, liveth not unless it die: ³⁷ and that which thou sowest—the body which will be is (not, pron.) that which thou sowest, but (Δ) it is a grain, naked, whether [a] wheat or another of (the) rest of the seeds; ³⁸ but God giveth (a) body to it, according as he wished, and to each of the seeds he giveth their own body. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh, but (Δ) a different flesh indeed of the men, a different flesh of the beasts, a different flesh of the birds, different that of the fishes.

Where was thy sting, (the) death? ⁵⁶ For (the) sting of (the) death is (the) sin; but (the) power of (the) sin is (the) law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be given to God, [this] who giveth the victory to us through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸ Wherefore, my brethren beloved, be ye steadfast, immoveable, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your toil is not void in the Lord.

XVI. But concerning the collection which was made concerning the saints, as I commanded the churches of (the) Galatia, do ye also thus. ² Every first of the sabbaths let each one of you lay by him, treasuring (lit. throwing in) according as (lit. that in which) his way will prosper (lit. be straightened), lest by any means, should I come, then should be countings up. ³ But if I should come, them of whom ye approve, I shall send these through letters to take your grace to Jerusalem: ⁴ but if the work is worthy to cause me to go also, they shall walk with me. ⁵ But I shall come to you, if I should pass by (the) Macedonia; for I shall

(lit. will) pass by (the) Macedonia. ⁶ But perchance I might (ἴτ&) stay with you, or I might (ἴτ&) spend the winter, that ye (pron.) may escort me to the place to which I shall (lit. will) go. ⁷ For I wish not to see you now, being on (the) road; for I hope to spend time with you, if the Lord should command. ⁸ I shall (lit. will) be in Ephesus until the Pentēcostē. ⁹ For a great door effectual was opened to me, and (there are) many adversaries. ¹⁰ But if Timotheos should come, see that he may come to you without fear; for the work of the Lord he worketh, as also I (do). ¹¹ Let no one then despise him: but escort him in [a] peace that he may come to me: for I expect him with the brethren. ¹² But concerning Apollo the brother, I besought him very much that he might come to you with the brethren: and it is not at all (the) wish that he should come now; but he shall come to you if he should find (the) opportunity. ¹³ Watch, then, and stand in (the) faith; master yourselves, and take courage.

a one might be swallowed up. ⁸ Therefore I beseech you to confirm [a] love unto (lit. into) him. ⁹ For therefore I wrote to you that I might know your proof; if ye are obedient in all things. ¹⁰ But to whom ye will condone, I also do (it) to him: for I (pron.) also condone that which I condoned, [I did it] because of you, in (the) person of Jesus Christ; ¹¹ that Satan may not do us wrong, for we forget not his thoughts.

¹² But having come to Trōas for (ε) the Gospel of Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the Lord, ¹³ my spirit rested not, I having not found Titos my brother: and having taken leave of them, I came from there to (the) Macedonia. ¹⁴ But thanks be to God, he (lit. this) who manifesteth us always in Christ, and manifesting through us savour of his knowledge in every place. ¹⁵ Because we are a sweet savour of Christ to God, in them who will be saved, and in them who will perish; ¹⁶ to some indeed the hidden things of (the) shame. We walk not in [a] craftiness, and we use not subtlety in the word of God; but (Δ) in the manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every conscience of [the] men before God. ³ But if our Gospel is even (so) hidden, it is being hidden in them who will perish: ⁴ in whom God hardened the thoughts of the unbelieving of this age, to cause them not to see (the) light of the Gospel of (the) glory of Christ, who is (the) image of God.

⁵ For we proclaim not ourselves, but (Δ) Christ Jesus our Lord, but we ourselves are servants to you through Jesus. ⁶ Because God said: 'A light shall shine in (the) darkness,' which is this which shone in our hearts for a light of (the) knowledge of (the) glory of God in (the) face of Jesus Christ: ⁷ having this treasure in earthen vessels, that the greatness of the powers might be that of God, and not be from you. ⁸ Being oppressed in everything, but (Δ) we are not is weak, and the words contemptible. ¹¹ This again let such a one think, that, according as we are in (the) word through the epistles, not being with you, this is as we are in (the) deed, being with you. ¹² For we are not bold to compare ourselves or to measure ourselves with (ε) some who commend themselves: but (Δ) they (pron.) in themselves are measuring themselves, and are comparing themselves with (ε) themselves, and are not understanding. ¹³ But we (pron.) were not boasting ourselves in things without measure, but (Δ) according to the measure of the canon which God ordained to us, to cause us to reach unto it in a measure, and one as far as you. ¹⁴ For not as not reaching to you we stretch (out) ourselves to you the more: for we reached to you also in the Gospel of Christ: ¹⁵ not boasting ourselves in unmeasuredness (plural), in toils of other men^a; but having a hope, should your faith grow, to cause it to become great in you, according to our canon unto an abundance, ¹⁶ to preach glad tidings to you, ^b things which are greater than those, not in a canon of other men (and) to boast ourselves of the things which were prepared. ¹⁷ But of ministering to you*, ⁹ and being with you, having been in want, I put not burden upon one of you; for my deficiency the brethren who came from (the) Macedonia filled it up^b; and in everything I kept myself, being unburden-some to (lit. from) you, and I shall keep (so) still (Ort). ¹⁰ The truth of Christ is in me, that this boast will not be shut off from me (εποι) in the places of [the] Achaia. ¹¹ Why? Because I love you not. God knoweth. ¹² But that which I do, I shall (lit. will) do it still (Ort), that I may cut off (the) pretext of them who wish to find pretext; that they may be found in that in which they boast themselves according as ourselves. ¹³ For these are as false apostles, workers of subtlety, changing themselves into (the) form of apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And it is not a wonder. Satan also himself changeth himself into (the) form of an angel of (the) light. ¹⁵ It is not then a great (thing) if his ministers also change themselves into (the) form of ministers of [the] righteousness, these whose end will be according to their works.

¹⁶ Again I say, lest by any means one should think of me, that I am foolish,—nay, even though as foolish receive me, that which he heareth from me. ⁷ And in (the) abundance of the revelations, therefore, that I should not exalt myself, a piercing thorn was given in my flesh, namely (ἄχρ) an angel of Satan that he might buffet me, that I should not exalt myself. ⁸ I prayed the Lord three times about this, that he might depart from me. ⁹ And he said to me: 'It is sufficient for thee with (ε) this grace: for my power was completed in the weakness.' It is pleasing to me then rather to boast myself in the weaknesses, that the power of Christ may be upon me. ¹⁰ Therefore I am well pleased in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in tribulations for Christ: for if I should be weak, then I take courage. ¹¹ I became foolish: ye (pron.) compelled me; for I (pron.) ought (imperf.) ^a to have been commended by you: for I was not deficient in anything in comparison with (εϋοτε) the apostles who surpass. If indeed I (am) nothing. ¹² But (Δ) the signs of the apostleship were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and powers.

TO GALATIANS. IV. 1.

I. Paul (the) apostle, not from man, nor through man, but (Δ) through Jesus Christ and God the Father, he (lit. this) who raised him from them who are dead, ² and all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of (the) Galatia :

³ (The) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ he (lit. this) who gave himself for our sins, to the end that he (ϣΔΤΕϥ) might save us out of this age which is evil, which exists, according to the will of God and the Father : ⁵ whose is the glory unto age of the ages. Amēn. ⁶ I wonder that thus quickly they remove you from him who called you in (the) grace of Christ unto another Gospel ; ⁷ which is not another ; except perhaps that there are some troubling you, wishing to pervert the Gospel by nature Jews, and not of the Gentiles, sinners. ¹⁶ We are knowing that the man will not be justified from the works of the law, except from (the) faith of Jesus Christ; and we also believed Christ Jesus, that we might be justified from (the) faith of Christ, not from the works of the law: because from the works of the law will no^a flesh be justified. ¹⁷ But if, seeking for being justified in Christ, we also were found to be (lit. being) sinners, then Christ is a minister of (the) sin. It shall not be. ¹⁸ For if the things which I pulled down, these again I build, I prove myself (a) transgressor. ¹⁹ For I (pron.) through [a] law died to the law, that I might live with God. I was crucified with Christ; ²⁰ I live; no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: but that in which I live now in (the) flesh, I lived in the faith of (the) Son of God, he (lit. this) who loved me, and he gave himself for me. ²¹ I shall (lit. will) not reject the grace of God.

. For if from (the) law is [the] righteousness, then Christ died without a cause. III. O [the] foolish Galatians, who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was fore-written, having been crucified? ² This only (is it) which I wish to know from you. Received ye the spirit from the works of the law or from (the) hearing of (the) faith? ³ Thus ye are foolish. Having begun in the spirit, [but] now ye complete in (the) flesh. ⁴ Ye suffer many toils in vain, if indeed (δε) in vain.

⁵ He then who supplieth the spirit to you, and who worketh powers among you, is it something (οτ) from the works of the law, or from (the) hearing of the faith? ⁶ According as Abraham believed God, it was reckoned to him for [a] righteousness. ⁷ Ye know, then, that they (who are) from (the) faith, these (are) the sons of Abraam. ⁸ But the Scripture having foreseen that from (the) faith God will justify the Gentiles, preached good tidings before to Abraam:

a covenant of a man, should it be confirmed, no one rejecteth it, nor add they fresh ordinance. ¹⁶ But promises were promised to Abraam and his seed. He was not saying: 'And his seeds,' as about many; but (Δ) as about one: 'And thy seed,' which is Christ. ¹⁷ But this I say, that a covenant having been confirmed before by God, (the) law which happened after four hundred (and) thirty years dissolveth it not, to cause it to do away with the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance is from (the) law, then it is no more from a promise: but God granted (it)^a to Abraam through a promise. ¹⁹ What then is (the) law? It was given (ΧΔϚ) because of the transgressions, until the seed should come, to whom he promised; having been ordained through angels, in (the) hand of a mediator: ²⁰ but the mediator is not of (ΦΔ) one, but God is one. ²¹ (The) law then was against the promises of God. It shall not be: for if law had been given, it being possible for it to give life, certainly [the] righteousness would have been^b from the law. ²² But (Δ) (the) Scripture shut (up) everything in (the) sin, that the promise through (the) faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them who believe. ²³ Before the faith came we were being kept under the law, being shut (up) unto the faith which cometh to be revealed. ²⁴ Wherefore the law guided us to Christ, that we might be justified from (the) faith.

²⁵ But the faith having come, we are no more under a guide. ²⁶ For ye all are sons of God, through (the) faith, in Christ Jesus. ²⁷ For ye all, namely they who were baptised in Christ, clothe you with Christ. ²⁸ There is not Jew nor Greek, there is not servant nor free, there is not male nor female: for ye all are one in Christ. ²⁹ If ye (are) they of Christ, then ye (are) they of (the) seed of Abraam, according to the promise ye (are) heirs. IV. I say that as long as the heir is a little child there is not any difference between (α) him and a servant, though he be (lit. being) lord of all things. ² But (α) he was under guardians and stewards unto the term of his father. ³ Thus we also, when we were children, were being (ΧΗ) under the elements

Be ye then like to God, as beloved children; ² and walk in [a] love. according as also Christ loved you, and he gave himself for you an offering and a sacrifice to God unto an odour of fragrance. ³ But [the] fornication, and all uncleanness, or [a] wrongdoing, cause not them to say their (lit. her) name among you, according as it is worthy of the saints; ⁴ [the] empty words, and [the] words of folly or [the] jesting, these which it is not worthy to do: but (Δ) rather [a] thanksgiving. ⁵ For this ye are knowing and ye are recognising, that no ^{*} fornicator nor unclean man nor wrongdoer, which is [the] idolatry, hath inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. ⁶ Cause not any one to deceive you in empty words, for because of these things cometh the anger of God upon the sons of [the] disobedience. ⁷ Be not ye then sharers with them; ⁸ for ye were being darkness

TO PHILIPPIANS. VI. 1.

I. Paul and Timotheos, the servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints who are in Christ Jesus who are (ϡρον) in Philippiis, with the bishops and the deacons: ² (the) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. ³ I give thanks to my God for all your remembrance ⁴ which I make always in all my prayers for you all in [a] joy making the prayer ⁵ for your fellowship which was with (ϡϡ) the Gospel from the first day up to now; ⁶ being persuaded about this, that he who began in you will complete a good work unto the day of Jesus Christ.

for your faith; ³ that no one might be moved in these tribulations. For ye (pron.) know (CΩOYH) that we were set for this thing: ⁴ for even when (ICXEH) we were with you, we were beforehand in saying to you that we shall (lit. will) be oppressed; according as it came to pass and ye know (EΛEI). ⁵ Therefore I also am unable to be long-suffering, I sent to know your faith, lest by any means he who tempteth tempted you, and your toil became empty.

⁶ But now Timotheos having come to me from with you, and having said to us (the) good tidings of your faith and your love, and that our good remembrance (is) in you, loving to see us, according as is with us also unto you; ⁷ therefore we were consoled about you, our brethren, for all your necessity and all your tribulation through your faith: ⁸ because now we live, should ye stand in the Lord. ⁹ For what thanksgiving is it possible for us to give in return to the Lord for all the joy with which we rejoice for you be meek, and to work your own things, and to work with your hands according as we ordered you; ¹² that ye may walk seemly before them who are without, and have not need of anything.

¹³ But we wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant, our brethren, concerning them who sleep; that ye may not grieve as (the) rest also who have not hops. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and he rose, thus they who slept through Jesus, God will bring them with him. ¹⁵ For this we said to you in (the) word of the Lord, that we, namely they who are alive, who will be left (CENI) unto (the) coming of the Lord shall not * precede them who slept. ¹⁶ Because the Lord himself with command, with a voice of archangel and a trumpet of God, shall come down from (the) heaven, and the dead who are in Christ shall rise first: ¹⁷ afterwards we, namely they who are alive, who will be left, shall be caught up with them together in clouds, that we may meet the Lord in the air. TO HEBREWS. X. CH. 1.

I. In many (ΘΟ) manners and many (ἄλλῃ) forms from (the) beginning God spake to our fathers from the prophets,² but at (the) end of these days he spake to us in a Son, he (ΦΔΙ) whom he appointed (ΧΔC) heir of all, and through him he made the ages; ³who himself is the splendour of his glory, and (the) form of his substance, upholding (the) universe by (ΘΕΙ) (the) word of his power.

Through him he made a cleansing of the sins. He sat on the right hand of the greatness on high^a; ⁴having become better^b than the angels by so much, as he inherited a name my brethren, in (the) midst of the church I shall (lit. will) bless thee.⁷ ¹³ And he saith again (ON): 'I shall be trusting in him.' And again he saith also (ON): 'Behold, I and the children whom God gave to me.' ¹⁴ Since then the children shared in (ñ) blood and flesh, so (οὐτος) he also shared in (ε) such things; that through his death he might do away with him who had (the) strength of (the) death, who is the devil, ¹⁵ and might restore these. They who being in the fear of (the) death were incurring [a] servitude all their lifetime. ¹⁶ For he put (lit. threw) not his hand unto angels [together]^a, but (Δ) (the) seed of Abraam (is) that unto which he put his hand. ¹⁷ Therefore it is worthy that he should be like to his brethren in all things, that he might be merciful and high priest faithful toward God, for him to forgive the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For in that in which he suffered and which he was tempted, it is possible for him to help them who are tempted.

III. Therefore, my brethren, holy, and sharing in the calling of (the) heaven, consider the apostle and high priest priesthood of the Levite; for law was given to the people *in its time; then what was (the) need for there to be another priest according to (the) order of Melchisedek, and not to say, 'According to (the) order of Aaron?' ¹² For the priesthood being about to be removed, necessarily there is a removing of the law also. ¹³ For he concerning whom these things are said belonged to^b another tribe, that (lit. this) from which no one attended at the altar. ¹⁴ For it is manifest from (the) first, that our Lord sprang from Jouda; that tribe from which Moses said not anything concerning priest. ¹⁵ And it is yet even the more manifested, if according to (the) form of Melchisedek will arise another priest. ¹⁶ He (Φ&Ι) who was made not according to a law of a carnal commandment, but (Δ) according to a power of an indissoluble life. ¹⁷ For it is witnessed of him: 'Thou art (the) priest for ever, according to (the) order of Melchisedek.' ¹⁸ For indeed there will be a rejection of the first commandment because of its weakness and its unprofitableness, ¹⁹ for the law completed not anything.

and myriads of angels keeping festival, ²³ and a church of firstborn (which) is written in the heavens, and God the judge of all, and the spirit of the righteous ones who are completed, ²⁴ and Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and a blood of a sprinkling speaking more than that of Abel.

²⁵ Take heed, refuse not him who speaketh. For if those could not escape upon the earth, having refused him who speaketh, much more we, namely those who will turn away from him who came out of the heavens: ²⁶ whose voice moved the earth then; but now he promised, saying: 'Yet another time I (pron.) shall (lit. will) shake not only (the) earth but (Δ) also the heaven.' ²⁷ But this (lit. the), Yet another time, is showing to us a carrying away of the things which are moved as things made^a, that the things which are not moved may be permanent.

²⁸ Therefore being about to receive a kingdom immovable, let us have^b grace, this through which we shall (lit. will) minister to God, pleasing him in [a] fear and [a] trembling:

faith. ⁵ But (the) end of this order is this: [a] love from a pure heart, and a good conscience, and [a] faith unfeigned.

⁶ These with which some agreed^a not, they turned aside to words of vanity; ⁷ and wishing to be teacher of the law, they understand not the things which they say, nor concerning the things upon which they establish themselves.

⁸ But we know that the law is good, if one should do to it^b as law.

⁹ Knowing thou this, that the law was not being (ΧΗ) for the righteous (man), but (Δ) it was (ΧΗ) for the lawless and the unruly and the ungodly and the sinners, and them who are not sanctified, for the profane-hearted, for the father-slayers, for the mother-slayers, for the man-slayers, ¹⁰ for the fornicators, for the sleepers with male, for the deceivers of man, for the sellers of freemen, for the false speakers, for false swearers, and every other thing which is contrary to the sound doctrine; ¹¹ according to the Gospel of (the) glory of the blessed God, this with which I (pron.) was entrusted.

men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without anger and reasoning. ⁹ Thus also the women, being in [a] placid beauty of heart, and [a] reverence and [a] prudence.

Adorning themselves not in plaitings and gold (plur.) and pearls or in a clothing of great price; ¹⁰ but (Δ) that which beseemeth the women to practise (σῆ), professing* [a] devoutness from good works. ¹¹ Let a woman learn in [a] meekness in all subjection. ¹² But I command not woman to teach, nor to be head over her husband, but (Δ) let her be taught in [a] meekness. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eva; ¹⁴ and Adam was not deceived; but the woman—she having been deceived, became in a transgression: ¹⁵ but she shall be saved through her child-bearing, if they should stay in [the] faith and [the] love and [the] sanctification in [a] prudence (αετσαβε).

to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many lusts of foolishness, (which) profit not, those which plunge the man into (the) destruction* and [the] perdition. ¹⁰ For (the) root of all evil is the love of silver, which some loved; they went astray from (the) faith, and they drew to themselves many griefs. ¹¹ But thou, O (the) man of God, flee from these things, but run after [the] righteousness, [the] godliness, [the] faith, [the] love, [the] patience, [the] suffering in [a] meekness. ¹² Strive the good strife of (the) faith, lay hold on the eternal life, to which thou wast called, and thou confessedst the good confession before many witnesses.

¹³ I order thee before God, he (ΦΔΙ) who giveth life to all things, and Christ Jesus, he (ΦΔΙ) who witnessed before (ϋ) Pontios Pilatos the good confession, ¹⁴ to keep this commandment, being thyself spotless, being blameless until (the) manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

left^a, and establish presbyters in every city, according as I commanded thee; ⁶ one who is irreproachable being (ε&ς) husband of one wife, having children faithful, and they are not under (lit. in) an accusation of dissoluteness, or being insubordinate. ⁷ For it is right that the bishop should be irreproachable, as a steward of God, not being selfwilled, not being a man of anger, not being a wine-bibber, not being a striker, not being a lover of dishonourable gain, ⁸ being a lover of strangers, lover of the good (singular), prudent, just, holy, being temperate, ⁹ laying hold on the faithful word for (ε) the teaching, that he may be able to encourage in the sound teaching and reprove them who contradict. ¹⁰ For there are many insubordinate and speakers of vanity, deceivers of heart, chiefly they of (the) circumcision. ¹¹ These whose mouths ought to be stopped, who turn aside (the) whole of houses, teaching the things which (they) ought not, for a despicable gain.

or Tichikos, haste thee to come to me to Nikopolis: for I ordained to spend the winter there. ¹³ Zēnas the lawyer and Apollō send in [a] haste, that they may not be deficient of anything. ¹⁴ Let those who are ours learn to take care for good works unto the necessary needs, that they may not be unfruitful. ¹⁵ All who are with me salute thee. Salute them who love us in (the) faith. (The) grace with you all.

To Titos, it was written in Nikopolis. He was bishop of the church of (the) Makedonia.

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. EPISTLE (OF) JAMES.

I. James, (the) servant of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion, hail. ² Be in all joy, my brethren, if ye should fall into various temptations; ³ knowing that the proof of your faith worked [a] patience. ⁴ But [the] patience—let a complete work be in it (sc. patience), that ye may be complete and sound, and that ye may not be deficient of anything. ⁵ But if there is one among you deficient of wisdom, let him ask from God, who giveth to all simply, reproaching not; and it shall be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in [a] faith, doubting not. let not that man think to himself, that he will take anything from the Lord; ⁸ but the man who doubteth is unsteady on all his ways. ⁹ But let the brother who is in humble (position) boast himself in his exaltation: ¹⁰ but the rich in his humiliation: because as a flower of [a] grass he will pass (away). ¹¹ For (the) sun arose with the scorching heat and dried the grass; and its flower fell off, but (the) beauty of its face perished: thus also the rich in all his ways will wither. ¹² Blessed is the man who will endure in a temptation, because, should he be a chosen (one), he will receive the crown of (the) life, which he promised to them who will love him.

¹³ Let not any one say, being tempted, that it is God who tempteth me: for God tempteth not in evil things, but he (pron.) tempteth not any one: ¹⁴ but each one is being (εἶ) tempted by his own lust drawing him and enticing him. ¹⁵ Then the lust should it conceive bringeth forth (the) sin: but (the) sin should it be completed begetteth (the) death. ¹⁶ Go not astray, my brethren, my beloved. ¹⁷ All stand there or sit here at (the) place of putting the feet.' 4 Did you not put a distinction among yourselves, and ye become judges of (lit. in) evil thoughts? 5 Hear, my brethren, my beloved; was not God choosing the poor of the world, rich in the faith, and heirs of the kingdom, which he promised to them who will love him? 6 But ye dishonour the poor (man). Is it not the rich who tyrannise you? And they (are those) who draw you to places of giving judgement. 7 Are not they (those) who blaspheme the good name which was called over you. 8 If indeed ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scriptures: 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself,' ye do well: 9 if ye respect persons, ye work (the) sin; (the) law convicting you as transgressors of the law. 10 For he who will keep (the) law, and fall in one (commandment), became guilty of them all. 11 For he who said: 'Thou shalt not commit adultery,' he (pron.) again said: 'Thou shalt not kill.' show to us his works from his good walk (of life) in [a] meekness of [a] wisdom. ¹⁴ But if there is bitter jealousy among you and strife in your hearts, boast not yourselves and speak (not) falsehood against the truth. ¹⁵ This wisdom was not coming down from above, but (Δ) is that of (the) earth, psychic, demon-form.

¹⁶ For where there is jealousy or strife, (the) confusion is there and every evil work. ¹⁷ But the wisdom which is from above, first indeed it is pure, then it is peacemaking, it is fair, full of mercy, and good fruit, it is not self-judging, it is not hypocritical.

¹⁸ But (the) fruit of [the] peace and [the] righteousness is sown in [a] peace to them who make [the] peace.

IV. Whence is coming war, and whence is coming dispute among you? Is it not from these, from your pleasures which are armed in your members? ² Ye lust, and ye have not: ye kill, and ye are jealous, it is not possible for you this thing, that ye might inherit the blessing. ¹⁰ For he who wisheth to love [a] life, and to see good days, let him refrain his tongue from the evil, and his lips, not to speak [a] subtlety. ¹¹ Let him turn aside from the evil: let him do the good; let him seek for [a] peace, and pursue it. ¹² Because (the) eyes of the Lord look upon (εΞΕΝ) the righteous, and his ears incline to their prayer; but (the) face of the Lord (is) against (εΞΕΝ) them who do the evil.

¹³ And who will be able to give pain to you, if ye should be zealous of the good? ¹⁴ But (Δ) if ye even suffer for [the] righteousness, blessed are ye. But their fear, fear it not, nor be troubled. ¹⁵ But the Lord Christ sanctify him in your hearts.

Being prepared always for [a] defence to all who will ask you a word concerning the hope which is in you, ¹⁶ but (Δ) in [a] meekness and [a] fear: having a good conscience; that they may be ashamed who speak against you as evil doers, and who calumniate your good walk in Christ. ¹⁷ For it is good that ye should do the good, If the will of God wisheth, and ye should suffer, than doing the evil. ¹⁸ Because Christ also died once because of (the) sin for us, [but] the righteous for the wicked, that he might bring us in to God. Having died indeed in (the) flesh, but he liveth in the spirit; ¹⁹ in this he went, he preached good tidings to the spirits also who were in the prison; ²⁰ they who were disobedient once, when the longsuffering of God was indulgent^a in the days of Nōe, who made an ark, through which (a) few were saved from the water, that is to say, eight souls. ²¹ Thus ye also now, he will save you in a type of^b a baptism, not a laying down of a filthiness of (the) flesh, but (Δ) in a good conscience for (the) praying to God, through (the) resurrection of Jesus Christ; ²² who is (ΧΗ) on the right hand of God, having gone to (the) heaven: angels and authorities and powers were subjected to him.

¹⁴ Therefore, my beloved, (since) we are gazing out forward to these, hasten yourselves to be found without spot with him, and without stain before him in [a] peace. ¹⁵ And the longsuffering of the Lord reckon it to you for [a] salvation, according as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom which was given to him, wrote to you: ¹⁶ as also in all his epistles, speaking in them concerning these (things); these in which some (things) are difficult to know (what they mean); these which the foolish and they who are not firm, distort as (the) rest of the Scriptures; who will draw themselves to (ΚΑΤΑ) their own perditions. ¹⁷ Ye, then, my brethren, foreknowing, keep yourselves, lest by any means ye go astray in (the) error of the foolish, and fall from your own firmness. ¹⁸ But grow in [the] grace and (the) knowledge of our Lord and our saviour Jesus Christ, whose is the glory from now and unto age of the ages. Amen.

promise which we heard from him; we proclaim it to you, that God is [a] light, and there is not any darkness in him.

⁶ If we should say that we have a fellowship with him, and are walking in the darkness, we are saying false, and we do not (the) truth: ⁷ if we should walk in the light, as he also walketh in the light, we have a fellowship with one another, and (the) blood of Jesus his Son will cleanse us from all sin.

⁸ If we should say that we have not sin, we deceive ourselves, and (the) truth is not in us. ⁹ If we should confess our sins, he is faithful and is righteous that he should forgive us our sins, and he will cleanse us from all wrongdoing. ¹⁰ If we should say that we sinned not, we make him false, and his word is not in us. II. My children, these things I write to you, that ye may not sin. beginning. Therefore (the) Son of God was manifested, that he might pull down the works of the devil. ⁹ Every one who was born from God sinneth not, because there is a seed of his abiding (ὑΠΟΝ) in him: and it is not possible for him to sin, because he was born from God. ¹⁰ In this are manifested the children of God, and the children of the devil.

Every one who doeth not (the) righteousness is not from God, and he who loveth not his brother. ¹¹ Because this is the promise which ye heard from (the) beginning, that ye should love one another: ¹² not according as Kain, who was (ΠΕ) from the evil (οὐ), and he killed his brother. Why killed he him? Because his works were being evil, but those of his brother were righteous. ¹³ But wonder not, my brethren, if the world hateth you. ¹⁴ We (pron.) know that we removed from (the) death into (the) life because we love the brethren. He who loveth not abode in (the) death. ¹⁵ Every one who hateth his brother is a murderer: and we know that no murderers have^a eternal

'I love God,' and is hating his brother, he is false: for he who loveth not his brother whom he seeth, God whom he saw not, how will he be able to love him? ²¹ And this commandment we have from him, that he who loveth God should love his brother also. V. Every one who believeth that Jesus (is) Christ is born^a from God: and every one who loveth him who begat^b loveth also him who was begotten^b from him. ² In this we shall (lit. will) know that we love the children of God: If we should love God, and do his commandments. ³ For this is [the] love of God, that we should keep his commandments; and his commandments are not burdensome. ⁴ Because every one who was born from God conquereth the world: and this is the conquest which conquered the world, even^c our faith.

⁵ But who is he who is conquering the world, except him who believeth that Jesus is (the) Son of God? ⁶ This is he who came through [a] water and [a] blood and [a] spirit,

Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but (Δ) also in the water and in the blood. And the spirit is (that) which witnesseth, because the spirit is the truth. ⁷ Because three are they who witness, ⁸ the spirit and the water and the blood: and the three are in one. ⁹ If we receive the witness of [the] men, the witness of God is greater: because (ΧΕ) this is the witness of God, that (ΧΕ) he witnessed of his Son. ¹⁰ He who believeth (the) Son of God, the witness of God is in him: he who believeth not (the) Son of God made him false; because he believed not the witness, which God witnessed of his Son. ¹¹ And this is the witness, that God gave to us an eternal life, and this life was in his Son. ¹² He who hath (the) Son hath (the) life; he who hath not (the) Son of God hath not (the) life. ¹³ These things I wrote to you, that ye might know that ye have an eternal life, ye (lit. they) who believe (the) name of the Son of God. ¹⁴ And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that,

ACTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES.

I. The first treatise (C&X1) indeed I made concerning all things, O Theophylle, amongst those which Jesus began^a to do [them] and to teach,² until the day (in which), having charged the apostles through the holy spirit, those whom he chose, he was taken away to (the) heaven.³ These to whom he manifested himself alive after having suffered, in many signs, through forty days manifesting himself to them, and speaking to them concerning the kingdom of God:⁴ and eating with them, he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but (Δ) to stay for the promise of the Father, which ye heard from me:⁵ because Iōannēs indeed baptised

⁶ They indeed then having assembled were asking him, saying: 'Lord, in this time wilt thou restore the kingdom to Israel?' ⁷ He said to them: 'It is not yours to know times or seasons (ΧΡΟΤ), these which the Father put under his authority. ⁸ But (Δ) ye shall receive [a] power, if the holy spirit should come upon you: and ye will be to me witness in Jerusalem, and all [the] Ioudea and (the) Samaria, and unto the (lit. his) end of (the) earth.' ⁹ And having said these things, as they gaze, he was lifted up; and a cloud received him from their eyes. ¹⁰ But they were [as] staring one at another (lit. one) of them, as he goeth (lit. he walking) up to (the) heaven. Behold, two men stood with them in white raiment; ¹¹ and they said, [The] men, [the] Galileans, why stand ye gazing up to (the) heaven? the Scripture should be fulfilled, which the holy spirit said before from the mouth of David concerning Ioudas who guided them who overpowered Jesus. ¹⁷ Because he was being numbered amongst us, and the lot came to him * of the heritage of this ministry. ¹⁸ This (man) indeed then bought a field from (the) reward of (the) iniquity; and he fell upon his face, he burst in the (lit. his) midst, and all that (plur.) which was inside him was poured out. ¹⁹ And he was manifest to all who dwelt in Jerusalem; so that they call (the) name of that field in their language 'Acheldamag,' which (is) the field of the blood. ²⁰ For it is written in (the) book of the Psalms: 'Let his habitation be desolate, and let there not be him who dwelleth in it. His bishopric let another take.' ²¹ It is necessary then, among the men who came in among us, in all the time which our Lord Jesus came in and came out over us, ²² having begun from the baptism of Iōannēs until the day (in) which he was taken away up

Jerusalem, he was trying to join himself to the disciples: and they all were fearing him, and they trust him not that he is a disciple. ²⁷ But Barnabas caught hold of him, he brought him unto the apostles, he spake to them in what manner he saw the Lord on the road; and that he spake to him; and in what manner he spake boldly* in Damaskos in (the) name of Jesus. ²⁸ And he was being in Jerusalem, going in and out with them, speaking boldly in (the) name of the Lord Jesus: ²⁹ but he was speaking, he was questioning the Greeks; but they (pron.) were wishing to lay (lit. bring) their hands upon him to kill him. ³⁰ But the brethren having known (it), brought him to Kesaria, they sent him into Tharsos. ³¹ The church indeed then of all [the] Ioudea and [the] Galilea and (the) Samaria had [a] peace, being edified and continuing in the fear of the Lord, and they were going on (lit. coming) growing in the consolation of the holy spirit.

Ioppē: the disciples then, having heard that Petros is there, sent two men to him, saying, (and) praying him: 'Delay not to come to us.' ³⁹ But Petros arose, he walked with them.

But he having come, they took him away into the upper place; all the widows stood by him weeping, showing to him the coats and the garments (which) the Gazelle (was) making, being with them. ⁴⁰ Petros put (lit. threw) them all out; having thrown himself upon his knees, he prayed; having turned himself to the body, he said: 'Tabitha, rise.' But she (pron.) opened her eyes; but having seen Petros, she sat (up). ⁴¹ But he helped her*, he made her stand. But having called the saints and the widows, he presented her to them alive. ⁴² But this work was manifested in all Ioppē: and many believed the Lord. ⁴³ But he abode many days in Ioppē with one 'Simōn' the tanner.

witness, that this is he whom God ordained judge of (e) them who are alive and them who are dead. ⁴³ This of whom all the prophets witness, that (εερωτ) through his name all who believe him should receive (the) forgiveness of their sins.' ⁴⁴ As Petros was yet speaking these words, the holy spirit came upon all who heard the word. ⁴⁵ And they of (the) circumcision, the faithful who came with Petros, were amazed, because the free gift of the holy spirit was poured out upon the Gentiles also. ⁴⁶ For they were hearing them speaking in tongues, and exalting God. Then Petros answered: ⁴⁷ 'Is it possible for any to forbid the water, that these should not be baptised, these who received the holy spirit as we also (did)?' ⁴⁸ But he commanded them to baptise them in (the) name of Jesus Christ. Then they besought him to abide with them some days. XI. But the apostles and the brethren who were in [the] Ioudeia heard that the Gentiles received the word of God. ² When Petros went into Jerusalem, they of (the) circumcision upon some from the church to give pain to them. ² And he killed Iakōbos (the) brother of Iōannēs with (the) sword. ³ But having seen the thing was pleasing to the Jews, he went on (lit. added) to arrest Petros also. But the days were (those) of the unleavened (plur.). ⁴ Him (Φ&Ι) having arrested, he put in the prison, having delivered him to four bands of soldiers to keep him, thinking to bring him up to the people after the Pascha. ⁵ Petros indeed then was being kept in the prison: but the church was praying for him greatly to God. ⁶ But when Ērōdēs was about to bring him up, in that night Petros was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: but there were keepers at the doors keeping the prison. ⁷ And behold, an angel of the Lord came, and a light shone in the house: but having shaken (the) side of Petros, he raised him (up), saying: 'Rise quickly.' And the chains fell from his hands. ⁸ But the angel said to him: 'Gird thyself, and put (lit. give) thy sandal to thy foot.' But he did thus. And he said:

46 But Paulos and Barnabas were emboldened^a, they said: 'It was necessary to speak to you first the word of God. Since ye cast it away from you, and ye reckon yourselves not to be worthy of the eternal life, lo, we shall (lit. will) turn to the Gentiles. 47 For this is as the Lord ordered us: "I put thee for a light of the Gentiles, to be for a salvation unto the end of the earth." 48 But the Gentiles having heard, rejoiced, and they were glorifying the word of God. And all they who were ordained to the eternal life believed. 49 But they were going about with the word of the Lord in all the country. 50 But the Jews were instigating the devout women, and those of honourable estate, and the first (men) of the city, and they raised a persecution against Paulos and Barnabas, and they cast them away from their boundaries. 51 But they (pron.) shook off (the) dust of their feet against (lit. upon) them, they came into Ikonion. 52 But the disciples were being full of joy and the holy spirit.

ye (pron.) know that since the early days God chose among you from my mouth to cause the Gentiles to hear (the) word of the Gospel, and believe. ⁸ And God, he who knoweth the hearts, witnessed to them, and he gave to them the holy spirit, as he gave to us also; ⁹ and he put not any difference between us and them, having cleansed their hearts in the faith. ¹⁰ Now then why tempt ye God, to place a yoke on (the) shoulders of the disciples, this which not our fathers nor we (pron.) could bear? ¹¹ But (Δ) through the grace of our Lord Jesus we believe that we shall be saved^a, according as the others. ¹² But all the multitude was silent, and they were hearing Barnabas and Paulos speaking of all the signs and the wonders which God did among the Gentiles through them.

¹³ But after they were silent, Iakōbos answered, saying, [The] men, our brethren, hear me: . ¹⁴ Symeōn spake how^b at (ΙCΧΕΙΝ) first God visited, to take a people from the Gentiles in his name. ¹⁵ And with this agree the words of

¹⁵ The evil spirit answered, he said to them: 'Jesus I know (ΚΩΟΥΝ), and Paulos also I know (ΕΛΛΙ), but who are ye?'

¹⁶ And the man with whom the evil spirit (was) threw himself upon them, he mastered them together, he prevailed over them, so that they fled from that house naked with their heads wounded^a.

¹⁷ But this became manifested to all the Jews and the Greeks, who dwelt in Ephesos; and a fear came upon them all, and (the) name of the Lord Jesus Christ was going on (lit. coming) being exalted.

¹⁸ But many (sing.) from them who believed were coming, confessing, and saying their works.

²⁰ But thus mightily grew (the) word of the Lord and it prevailed.

²¹ But these (things) having been completed, Paulos purposed^c in his spirit that, should he pass throughout (the) Makedonia and [the] Achaia, he might go to Jerusalem, having said: 'After my going there, I must see also Rōmē.'

²⁹ For they had before seen Trophēmos with him in the city, the Ephesian; this (man) they were thinking that Paulos took away into the temple. ³⁰ But the whole city was moved, and there happened a running together of all the people; and having overpowered Paulos, they drew him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. ³¹ But as they are seeking to kill him, The news went up to the chiliarchos of the band, that the whole of Jerusalem was troubled. ³² But immediately he took soldiers and centurions, he ran upon them. But they (pron.) having seen the soldiers and the chiliarchos, ceased beating Paulos. ³³ Then the chiliarchos having approached, laid hold on him, and he commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he was asking who he is, and what he did. ³⁴ But others were crying out saying another thing. But having not been able to know the certainty because of the tumult, he commanded to take him away into the castle. ³⁵ But when he

this young man in unto thee, having a thing to say to thee.'
 19 But the chiliarchos seized hold of his hand, and having withdrawn apart alone, he was asking him: 'What (is) it which thou wishest to say to me?' 20 But he said: 'The Jews settled to pray thee to-morrow, that thou should bring Paulos to the council, as thou wilt know concerning him accurately. 21 Thou then be not persuaded by them: for there are more than forty men from them lying in wait for him; these who adjured one another not to eat nor to drink until they kill him: and now they are prepared, looking out for the promise about to be from thee.' 22 The chiliarchos then dismissed the young man, having ordered him not to say to any one that thou showedst to me these (things). 23 And he called two from the centurions; he said to them: 'Prepare two hundred soldiers, that they may go unto Kesaria, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spear-men, from (the) third hour of the night, 24 and may take beasts also, that they may mount Paulos, and bring him safe* unto Phylis the

was no longer (the) time of sailing, for the ship had gone out of her course, because that the fast also had passed.

But Paulos was exhorting, ¹⁰ saying to them, [The] men, I see that an injury and much loss will happen, not only of the ship and the freight, but (Δ) also our lives, in this voyage. ¹¹ But the centurion was trusting to the steersman and the shipowner rather than the things which Paulos was saying.

¹² But the harbour not being (well) placed for us to winter in, most of them made a plan to put out from there, that perhaps they could reach Phoinix to winter in, a harbour of [the] Krētē, looking westward, being a place of Chōra.

¹³ But a south wind blowing, they were thinking that they will be able to establish their purpose^a, they put to sea from Assōs, they left [the] Krētē. ¹⁴ But a high wind, which is called 'Eurakylōn,' delayed not, it blew against us. ¹⁵ But it having carried off the ship, as (ΕΤΕ)

THE REVELATION OF THE HOLY IOANNĒS.

I. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants the things which must happen quickly: and he signified them. Having sent them through his angel to his servant Iōannēs.

² He who witnessed to the word of God, and the witness of Jesus Christ, to^a the things which he saw.

³ Blessed are they who read, and they who hear the words of this prophecy, and who keep the things which are written on it: for the time approached. ⁴ Iōannēs to the seven churches which are in [the] Asia: (the) grace

(out), the great serpent, (the) ancient, he who is called the devil Satan, he who led astray the whole world; he was cast below the earth: his angels also were cast below with him.

¹⁰ And I heard a great voice up in (the) heaven, saying: 'Now happened the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.

Because the accuser of our brethren was cast to the earth, he who accused before God in the day and the night.

¹¹ Because they (pron.) overcame him because of (the) blood of the lamb, and because of (the) blood of their witness, for they loved not their life even unto (the) death.

¹² Therefore delight yourselves, [the] heavens, and they who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea: because the devil came below to you, there being a great wrath in him; knowing that only (κε) a little while (it is) which he hath.'

¹³ But the dragon, having seen that he was cast to (the) earth, pursued the woman who brought forth the son*.
